HOLY NAME SUNDAY

Next Sunday, the second in the month, is the monthly Communion Sunday for the members of the Holy Name Society. Coming as it does during Lent and also during the Month of St. Joseph, the special patron of Catholic men, a larger attendance than usual is looked for.

On Monday evening, Mar 9, the regular monthly meeting of the Society will be held in the School Auditorium, at 8 o'clock. This will be the first meeting of the Holy Name men since the departure of Father Maloney, the former spiritual director of the Society.

Following closely on the departure of Father Maloney came the news that Father Emmett Murphy was also leaving to take up duties as an army chaplain. Father Murphy was a graduate of Blessed Sacrament School in the class of 1927 and has been assistant pastor at St. Francis de Sales Church in Geneva.

In order to ask God's blessing and protection on all the men of the parish who are giving their services for the cause of their country, a High Mass will be offered for them each month during the duration of the war.

The paper drive recently conducted throughout the parochial schools of the city will long be remembered by the children of Blessed Sacrament.

special prize of a year's membership in the "Pro Parvulis" Book Club. This will mean the addition of a book a month to the school library.

Rev. Dr. Charles Mahoney, assistant superintendent of Catholic Schools in the diocese, was a recent visitor to Blessed Sacrament. He was very much pleased with the results of the work in the various grades.

The Lenten Discussion Group studying the Bible will continue its meetings on Friday evening in the Church hall following the Stations of the Cross.

St. Anne's Parish SOCIETY MEETS

St. Ann's Altar and Rosary Society is holding its regular meeting tonight (Thursday, Mar. 5) in the church hall.

Miss Marjorie Howland has organized two Study Clubs to meet each Friday night in the Rectory after church services.
