The ideas of Evans and Miss The ideas of Evans and Miss Anderson regarding Hollywood and the movies are somewhat varying. Evans admits that Hollywood is talking about movie contracts to him and he confesses that he would like to play 'Reys of the Kingdom,' for which role he has frequently been mentioned. But Hollywood seconding to Evans. Hollywood, according to Evans, refuses to let him off with one movie They insist that he sign a contract limiting his services to the screen for A considerable length of time "Not this chee-ild," quips Evans.

Miss Anderson, on the other hand is looking forward to re-turning to California and her garden even though her movie roles between "Rebecca" and her latest, "Kings Row" have not all been good. In California Miss Anderson says, there are none of the wor-rics over cold weather train schedvies, taxi and hotel shortages or snowstorms such as she found in Rochester. Miss Anderson did not prepare for Rochester with rubbers and Evens and your columnist had to half-carry her across the pud-dies. Evans didn't offer to lay his natty checked coat in her path.
