AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By DICK JEFFERY

Day of Silence Successful . . .

The idea of having a day of silence at Aquinas, instigated some time ago by Eugene Huether, president of the Acolyte Club, has ultimately become a reality. On Friday last, eager students entered the auditorium at 9:00 A. M. to hear Mass, celebrated by Father O'Loane.

After Mass, it was pointed out by Huether, that if such a retreat were to be successful, strict silence must be observed all day, in the classroom as well as in the cafeteria. He also mentioned the advantages of this school-wide act of self-denial, and requested each teacher to begin class with a "Hall Mary" and a few aspirations. It was made clear that any spiritual merit gained by the student body that day would be applicable to the alumni of Aquinas now in the armed forces.

Throughout the day students walked between classes in respectful silence. The day was closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3 o'clock, wherein Father O'Loane expressed his joy at the fine cooperation shown by each student.

Father's Pride and Joy . . .

Students taking public speaking at the Institute have recently allowed their poetic imagination to run away with them. Fired with imaginative zeal, the Rev. Hugh Haffey, instructor of public speaking, assigned his class to write some poems last week, and the results were most gratifying, ranging from flowery eloquence to blank verse. Particularly interesting were the works of Ray Burns, Don Smith and Jim Sullivan.

In regard to his prodigious pupils Father Haffey stated: "For some this has been their first attempt at poetry, while others are old hands at the trick. I shall save this poetry for future reference, in case any students wish to compile an anthology ten or fifteen years hence."

Basketball

Aquinas Wins At Auburn

Aquinas Institute's basketball team chalked up their eleventh win of the season last Friday night when they defeated Holy Family High School of Auburn by a score of 26 to 17. The game was played at Auburn. It was the second win of the season for the Irish over the Auburnites.

The Rochester five got off to a fast start and built up a first half lead of 12 to 7. The Purple and Gold quint put up a tough fight in an attempt to overhaul the Irish but the visitors working smoothly kept pulling away and had no trouble coasting to victory.

Joe Culhane was top man for Aquinas, garnering 10 points. Cullen and Henahan set the pace for the losers with 7 and 6 points respectively.

This Friday night the Irish will play their last game of the season, meeting the Batavia High School quint on the Dewey Ave. Court. It will be the second meeting of the two teams. Batavia won the first game at Batavia earlier in the season.

Scouting For Catholics

Troops seeking representation in this Catholic Scout News Column are requested to send their news to either Bernard Meyers, 145 Norton Street, or Herman Neveens, 124 Remington Street. Girl Scout Troops, as well as all Catholic Scout Groups in the Rochester Diocese are invited to send their news in too.

The National Council of the Boy Scouts of America has recently released the report of the total membership in the organization. The statistics include 1,172,943 Scouts and Scouters and 361,818 Cubs and Cubbers for a grand membership total of 1,534,761. This is an increase of 88,300 over the membership of the organization for 1941.

SODAL TALK

Rochester Sodality are certainly doing their bit for defense. St. Stanislaus group sends word that they are concentrating on making scapulars for the soldiers, giving blood to the Red Cross and taking First Aid Instructions. Besides this, Uncle Sam can make great use of the tin foil they are collecting.

St. Stanislaus planned to serve about one hundred Sodality at the annual Communion Breakfast, Sunday, Mar. 8, after the 7:30 Mass. Mr. Leo Zeller was the guest speaker.

Still from St. Stanislaus: the Sodality basketball team is not held in check because of war time. In fact, they seem to have a priority on the highest scores. In two seasons the team has won 25 games and lost 6, including many out-of-town and out-of-state games.

Sunday, Mar. 15, at 9 o'clock Mass, is the time set for all Sodality of Sacred Heart Parish to be present at the monthly Communion. Mar. 16 is the date of the Sodality meeting preceded by a Holy Hour in the Church. At this meeting the Eighth Graders are to be present if they so wish. In order to make real Sodality of all, Sacred Heart is drawing up a new Constitution in which the "ultra" regarding probationers will be changed. One of the highlights of the meeting will be the answering of questions by Father Joseph Sullivan, Director, which were handed in at the last meeting. A "Mission Shower" has been arranged also. All are asked to search their homes for old Rosaries, prayer books, medals, scapulars, or anything useful to the Missions.

St. Monica's will hold a meeting for the Junior Sodality on Monday, Mar. 16, in the Church Hall. All Junior members, that is anyone within high school age is asked to be present.
