HOLY FAMILY HIGH-LIGHTS

By MARY ELLEN FITZGERALD SHORT STORY CONTEST

AUBURN - In the Short Story Contest conducted recently in English III class, the students' first choice was "Let Him Live," written by Dorothy Gunderson and Kathryn Turner; second choice, "Saved by the Bell," by Robert Doyle and James O'Byrne. Many other interesting and well-planned stories were submitted by members of the class who manifested unusual enthusiasm in their efforts to produce well-formed plots and stories with great interest value.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENT

The following members of English III class will present a One-Act play "Timothy Casey's Secret" at a general assembly to be held on Monday afternoon, March 16, in the school auditorium: Timothy Casey..... Robert Doyle (Timothy Casey's wife)..... Eather Warner Mable Murphy..... Marylyn Barry Bridget Malone..... Margaret Doyle Mr. Grabbit..... Joseph O'Donnell John Sands..... Peter Magill Michael..... Paul Magill Rafferty..... James McDonald Song and tap dancing, "The Hat my Dear Old Father Wore on St. Patrick's Day" Margaret Doyle The above group, including William Ryan and Paul Laurin, will give a demonstration of square dancing with accordion music furnished by Edward DeKostic. Group singing of many Irish favorites will conclude the program.

SENATE CLUB

At a short meeting of the Senate Club on March 9, it was suggested by club director, Mr. Joseph Rooney, that a return debate be held with Assumption High School on or near March 27 at the Holy Family auditorium. Mr. Rooney will choose members of the Holy Family team at a meeting on March 16 when arrangements for the debate will have been completed.

Holy Family will again uphold the affirmative side of the question "Should the U. S. concentrate its forces in the Pacific and defeat Japan or take its main war effort to the Atlantic and defeat Hitler?" Although Holy Family lost the debate held in Syracuse with Assumption last month, the teams were pretty evenly matched, and the return debate promises to be a lively one.

SODAL TALK

Rochester Sodallies are certainly doing their bit for defense. St. Stanislaus group sends word that they are concentrating on making scapulars for the soldiers, giving blood to the Red Cross and taking First Aid Instructions. Besides this, Uncle Sam can make great use of the tin foil they are collecting.

St. Stanislaus planned to serve about one hundred Sodallists at the annual Communion Breakfast, Sunday, Mar. 8, after the 7:30 Mass. Mr. Leo Zeller was the guest speaker.

Still from St. Stanislaus: the Sodally basketball team is not held in check because of war time. In fact, they seem to have a priority on the highest scores. In two seasons the team has won 25 games and lost 5, including many out-of-town and out-of-state games.

Sunday, Mar. 15, at 9 o'clock Mass, is the time set for all So-dallists of Sacred Heart Parish be present at the monthly Communion, Mar. 16 is the date of the Sodally meeting preceded by Holy Hour in the Church. At the meeting the Eighth Graders are to be present if they so wish. In order to make real Sodallists of a Sacred Heart is drawing up a new Constitution in which the rules regarding probationers will be changed. One of the highlights of the meeting will be the answering of questions by Father Joseph Sullivan, Director, which were handed in at the last meeting. A "Mission Shower" has been arranged also. All are asked to search their homes for old Rosaries, prayer books, medals, scapulars, or anything useful to the Missions.

St. Monica's will hold a meeting for the Junior Sodally on Monday, Mar. 16, in the Church Hall. All Junior members, that is anyone within high school age, are asked to be present.
