ST. PATRICK'S DAY MASS

By MILDRED JENNINGS
Geneva Correspondent

GENEVA — The traditional St. Patrick's Day Mass was celebrated Tuesday at 8 o'clock in St. Francis de Sales Church, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Walter J. Lee, V. F., pastor of the church, being the celebrant.

There was a special musical program in honor of the occasion, the children of the school participating. Rev. Daniel Fraher of St. Stephen's parish delivered the panegyric on St. Patrick, dwelling particularly upon the deep faith of the Irish saint and his seal in the conversion of souls.

Father Fraher described the life of St. Patrick and his influence upon Ireland and dwelt also upon the contributions which the Irish people have made to the culture of the world.

A feature of the program was the singing of a hymn in honor of St. Patrick by Mrs. Thomas A. Kane who has participated in the St. Patrick's Day celebration for many years.

GENEVA — Announcement was made on Sunday of the temporary assignment of Rev. Joseph Sullivan of the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral in Rochester to St. Francis de Sales parish.

Father Sullivan will take the place of Rev. J. Emmett Murphy who left recently to become chaplain in the Armed Forces.

On Thursday at St. Francis de Sales Church, the Feast of St. Joseph will be celebrated. There will be a high Mass at 8 o'clock. Children of the school will sing.

First Aid Courses

Atchison, Kans. — Two registered nurses enrolled as students at Mount St. Scholastica College here are among the instructors in Red Cross first aid courses which have been inaugurated at the college. All students and a large representation of faculty members and other Sisters are enrolled.

SPEAKS MARCH 23

Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J.

Noted Jesuit To Give 2 Geneva Addresses

GENEVA — Rev. Daniel Lord, S. J., national director of the Sodality of Our Lady which includes a large number of young people in the Catholic high schools and colleges throughout the country, will pay a visit to Geneva on Monday, March 23rd.

Father Lord will address the students of De Sales High School during the day, and will deliver a public address on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Francis de Sales School hall on Exchange Street.

De Sales High School Sodality is sponsoring Father Lord's visit and it is expected that a number of Genevans will take this opportunity to hear the noted author and lecturer, who appeared here several years ago at an anniversary meeting at Geneva High School.

ST. STEPHEN'S, Geneva

FORTY HOURS DEVOTIONS

GENEVA—Marked by a solemn procession in which members of the clergy, the St. Stephen's Choir, and a number of school children participated, the annual Forty Hours Devotions were opened on Sunday in St. Stephen's Church, during the 12 o'clock Mass.

The Mass was celebrated by Rev. William H. McPadden and Dr. McNamara of Rochester delivered the sermon.

Public and private devotions were held during the Forty Hours which were formally closed on Wednesday morning. Several priests from nearby parishes assisted the pastor in the program.

GENEVA — Mrs. Earl Holtby of St. Stephen's Parish presided at a recent meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders Association, when the new Senior Service Troops of De Sales High School were discussed. Miss Dorothy O'Malley who attended Nazareth College in Rochester is leader of this organization.

Present activities of the Senior Service Troops includes First Aid and Nutrition study.

Girl Scouts from St. Stephen's parish accompanied by Mrs. Earl Holtby visited the Geneva Historical Museum on South Main Street a few days ago and were guests at tea at the Museum.

GENEVA — Miss Genevieve McCarthy, a member of St. Stephen's parish, was named one of the new trustees for the Geneva Historical Society at the annual meeting of the organization at the Historical Museum on South Main Street.
