

Eastern Rite Masses Listed

The Conference on Oriental Rites and Liturgies held in Fordham University called attention to the fact that there are eight Eastern or Greek Rite Catholic Churches on Manhattan.

In the city of Rochester there is only one Eastern or Greek Catholic Church, that being St. Joseph's Ukrainian Catholic Church on Hudson Avenue of which the Rev. Basil Turula is pastor.

The Divine Liturgy (Mass) is celebrated on Sundays at 10 a. m. There is also a Low Mass celebrated on Sundays at 8 a. m. This schedule of Masses is held throughout the year except on Easter Sunday. Latin Rite Catholics may fulfill their Sunday obligation by attending these Masses.

CLERKEN in the strictest sense of the word are Russell Crowe and Thomas Byrne who appear in a comedy skit as part of the St. Bonaventure Glee Club Concert to be given at St. Boniface Hall on April 7.

St. Bona's Glee Club To Emphasize 'Glee' In Concert Here, April 7

Currently making its annual Easter tour, the St. Bonaventure College Glee Club will present a program of "Words and Music" in St. Boniface Auditorium on Tuesday, April 7, at 8:15 P. M.

Now in its fourteenth season, the Glee Club, under the direction of Fr. Claude Kean, O.F.M., consisting of twenty-eight members, has often been called "one of the outstanding collegiate units of the East." Unlike the majority of choral groups, they present an informal entertainment consisting of a miniature minstrel, a street-corner "revival" and original humorous songs, old and new, are listed only on the grounds of popularity.

Familiar soldier-choruses will be presented. "Blitzkrieg," an original parody concerning the Japs, will be enacted. A medley of songs from "America at War" will be rendered, accompanied by a running commentary and by colorful tableaux.

In a radio interview at Syracuse, Father Claude Kean explained his policy. "We have decided to leave the great music to the great performers—who alone can render it satisfactorily. We select our songs entirely by the standard of popular appeal. With our humorous skills, we try to underline the forgotten half of a glee club; namely, the 'glee'."

The performance is being sponsored by the St. Bonaventure College Rochester Club, a collegiate fraternity made up of students living in and around Rochester.

Tickets will be delivered by calling Ed Egan at Genesee 344-J.

Faith in God

We wondered, and we looked in vain,
The hour was growing late,
The storm so dark and dismal,
On March the ninth—the date.
With visions of our Curate told,
Out in the blinding snow,
Through Mt. Morris, and the country drear,
"Oh Lord! where shall I go?"
He blessed himself with anxious care,
When a house appeared in sight,
And lo! a Mother's prayer is heard,
They kept her boy that night.
'Twas a home without the Catholic faith,
And never felt before
The Christ-like presence of a priest,
Inside their welcome door.
God's plan in this experience,
So plainly can we see
'Tis the care He has for each of us,
His love for you and me.

FRANK FLORACK RITES

Funeral services for Frank T. Florack, 85, a lifelong resident of Rochester, who died Sunday, Mar. 22, 1942, took place at his home, 621 Clifford Ave., at 9:00 A. M. Wednesday, Mar. 25, 1942, with a solemn High Mass in the Church of Holy Redeemer at 9:30 A. M., celebrated by the Rev. Arthur Florack and assisted by the Rev. F. W. Stauder and the Rev. William Schifferli. Interment took place in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Florack is survived by four sons, Theodore, Joseph, Henry and Frank Florack; two daughters, the Misses Mary and Cecelia Florack; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; one brother, John Florack, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Schamine.

Deceased was a life-long member of the Holy Name Society of Holy Redeemer Church and a member of the Carpenters' Local.

Bearers were these members of the Rochester Traffic Squad: Franklin Heveron, William Allen, Charles Culligan, Elmer Junejohn, Jacob Osterman and Carlton M. Bailey.

Incumbent Rector (nervously by age): "Will it take much to further our little nest?"
Paraphrase Dealer: "Only a little nest!"
