

Way of Cross Marks Pilar Treaty

BUENOS AIRES.—A way of the cross and a large image of the crucified Christ have been dedicated at La Monserrat, summer residence near Pilar in the Province of Buenos Aires for the 122nd anniversary of the treaty of Pilar ending the civil war that was one of the most turbulent eras in Argentine history. It will serve as a memorial to the dead of that region, His Eminence said.

The image of Christ is larger than life-size and the cross is of Maria Fe hardwood, quebracho. The Crucifix commemorates the 122nd anniversary of the treaty of Pilar ending the civil war that was one of the most turbulent eras in Argentine history. It will serve as a memorial to the dead of that region, His Eminence said.

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By DICK JEFFERY

Aquinas 'Hail Mary' Day
"Hail Mary, Queen of Aquinas, we consecrate our activities, our studies, our present interests, and our future, this day to thee."

With the intonation of these beautiful words began the second annual "Hail Mary" Day at Aquinas, on Mar. 25, the Feast of the Annunciation—the birthday of the "Hail Mary."

Students representing every branch of activity at the school: press, music, art, clubs and sports, lay before the statue of Our Blessed Lady a small token symbolizing their consecration to her. Schubert's "Ave Maria" provided an appropriate background for this impressive scene. Richard Sforzini, narrator, pointed out that the purpose of the assembly was to consecrate the various Aquinas activities to Mary, along with the Aquinas alumni now in the armed forces, and to invoke her patronage over them.

Following this, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney addressed the audience, recalling for them the Aquinas men in battle, and reminding them of the hundreds of soldiers who "go off to battle with a 'Hail Mary' on their lips."

The playing of the National Anthem by the school orchestra marked the closing of a most impressive program.

Discussion Club Convenes

Members of the Discussion Club held their weekly round table at Nazareth Academy on Mar. 25, outlining the impression of Catholic and non-Catholic journalists on the general public.

Aquinas Students who attended this meeting include Michael Alletto, William Cimicelli, John Culligan, Richard Scherberger and Joseph Wilbur.

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

EASTER SUNDAY RITES

Solemn Easter Mass at 11:00 A. M. Sunday. Father Morphy will deliver the Easter Sermon at this Mass. All are invited to assist at this observance of our great Feast of the Resurrection. Special music has been prepared by the Men's Choir for the occasion, under direction of the Organist, Jerry Vogt, and the Choir Leader, Edward Finein.

General Parish Communion Easter Sunday. All men and women as well as our younger parishioners are to receive Holy Communion Easter morning. Communion will be given at all the Masses, including the 12:15 P. M. Mass. Confessions Saturday, 3:30 and 7:30 P. M. The proper way to observe the Feast of Easter is to receive our Risen Lord in Holy Communion.

The Easter Collection—Traditionally a generous and consecrated offering for the support of religion for the furtherance of the work of Jesus Christ in His Church, made by those who rejoice with Him on this day of His triumph over sin and death. The Easter Envelope will identify your gift, and list your name for the list of Easter Contributors.

Parish Party Tuesday at 8:00 P. M. A renewal of the popular entertainments and parties that were suspended at the beginning of Lent. The door charge will be 50¢—refreshments will be served—a happy evening with prizes for all who qualify. Your friends will appreciate your invitation to accompany them to the party this week.

Subscription Payments—your initial one, or your supplementary one will help make the Parish Subscription List complete. Drop it in any Sunday, or mail or deliver it to the rectory.

Names of Service Men are required that our Roll of Honor may be prepared for installation in the sanctuary. We ask parents of soldiers, sailors, marines, to send in the names of their sons in service; write them on an envelope, or a card, drop them in box Sunday, or send to rectory.

Sunday Offering Improves as the income of our people grows. Share with your parish church the blessings God gives you. Generous response to this duty of parish support means God's blessing on your parish through your weekly contributions.

Faculty Blessed

Bogota.—With the blessing of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, transmitted in a cable from His Eminence Luigi Cardinal Maglione, Papal Secretary of State, the new Faculty of Medicine of the Javeriana Pontifical University has opened.
