"We wish to ransom an Eskimo baby who will be named Joseph Patrick. We were very much impressed with the movie. We pray every day for the missions and hope to ransom another baby before school closes. Catherine Messner and Donald Savage are godparents."—Miss and Mr. Grados, St. Margaret Mary, Rochester.

"I am trying to help the missions as much as I can. I have wished to do this for a long time and at last succeeded in reaching the end of $5.00. My mother is glad because I want to help the missions."

"I would like my first big donation to stay in our own country. I want to buy an Indian and have him called Girard."—Eileen Amann, 6th Grade, St. Boniface School.

ST. PATRICK'S, SENECA FALLS

Upon my visit to St. Patrick's, Seneca Falls, the boys and girls of the Second Grade proudly presented me with an adoption. They are anxious to help the little folks in Selma, Alabama, and instructed us to find them a nice colored baby that they might baptize her Mary Catherine. We shall do just that.

"Our Freshman Religion Classes have decided to ransom a Chinese boy. Sister said that we could save the money we weren't spending on candy and ice cream during Lent and ransom a little pagan with it. We all agreed! We would like to name him John Joseph after Sister and St. Joseph. We all hope that Johnny will be a good Catholic boy."—Joan Keenan, Secretary, Namareth Academy.

"We want to thank you for the certificate of adoption which we received for the ransom of our five babies. We were pleased and satisfied with your choice of a mission in China."

"We are now sending you another $6.00—the support of our babies. Would you please see to it that this money is used for food, medicine or anything else our little orphans may need."

"We hope this little offering will go very far in making our little pagan brothers and sisters in China happy and contented. We are going to continue praying and sacrificing so that very soon you will be hearing from us again."—Year Grateful Missionaries of the 8th Grade, Namareth Academy.

"Here is another gift for the missions. If possible could we ransom an Eskimo baby? We would like the baby named Joseph John, if that is convenient."—First Graders, Sacred Heart.

I had fully intended to give you a report on the visits we've been making lately with the movie. However, we've already spilled over our limit in space. I shall have to wind this up in a hurry then and promise to report on our school visits next week.

NEWSWEEK

St. Anthony's, Elmira, and St. John's, Clyde, staged a photo-finish. Both concluded the week's activities neck and neck with two adoptions each. Nice work! And may the best man—or something—win.

The Second Grade of St. Anthony's showed a definite preference for the color black and chose a little Negro baby who is to be named Edward Joseph. The little folks of the Kindergarten and First Grade, having no particular preference are letting us pick them a pagan baby with the command that we baptize her Rose Marie. That we shall certainly do.

And from St. John's, Clyde, we have the following note:

"Here's our check for the ransom of a Chinese baby. We have chosen for his name, Joseph Vincent. His godmother will be Tina DiFabio and his godfather, Joseph De Leo."—7th Grade, St. John's, Clyde.

Taking the others in rapid-fire order, we are happy to pass along the following news:

Canadian Women Cancel Convention

OTTAWA.—The national convention of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, which was to have been held in Edmonton, has been cancelled.

The war situation and the need of exercising the strictest economy in national life were determining factors. Instead, a national executive meeting will be held in Montreal at an early date to further the cooperation of the League's 25,000 members with Canada's war effort.

Forces that are to renew the face of the earth must proceed from within, from the spirit.—Eppie Pike XII.

Priest Dies As He Leaves Confessional

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss.—The Rev. Denis O'Sullivan, of St. Alphonsus Church here for the past three weeks, died in the church Holy Thursday morning as he stepped into a pew from the confessional. Retired from active duty and residing at St. Stanislaus College, Bay St. Louis, Miss., for the past three years, Father O'Sullivan, 66, had come here to substitute during the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Joseph Holstad.
