PLAY TO MARK ANNIVERSARY

Each grade in the school will have a part in the annual entertainment given by the children this week. On Thursday and Friday evenings, April 16 and 17, the Auditorium will witness scenes that will carry some of the on-lookers back forty years. In connection with the fortieth anniversary of the parish the children's entertainment this year will take the form of a pageant representing the growth and development of the parish under its only pastor from the beginning, Father Connors. Entitled "Long, Long Ago," the play will begin at 8 o'clock each evening, and a large gathering is expected.

Bishop Lauds Pastor

Somewhat of a surprise was the visit of Bishop Kearney to Blessed Sacrament last Sunday. With his characteristic thoughtfulness and consideration, the Bishop found time in an already crowded day to be present at the 12 15 Mass and to speak briefly of the work accomplished by Father Connors during his forty years as pastor. (See Editorial on Page 22).

On Monday evening a large crowd of original parishioners and their children gathered in the Auditorium to honor the occasion. The choir helped to celebrate with several time-honored selections, and Father Connors spoke touchingly of his happiness and gratitude to all who during the years helped to make the present anniversary possible.

Clean Literature

After turning out in fine numbers to offer their Mass and Holy Communion on Sunday for their pastor on the fortieth anniversary of the parish, the men of the Holy Name Society held their monthly meeting last Monday evening in the Church hall. They heard Father Crimmens, diocesan director of the National Organisation for Decent Literature, tell of the need for increased vigilance in the campaign because of the present war crisis. Reports from the various leaders showed that the Committee for Clean Literature is functioning actively to secure cooperation of the dealers in the neighborhood.

An all-Sodalist wedding took place at Blessed Sacrament last Saturday. Ruth McNally, prefect of the Senior Sodality last year became the wife of William Dupre, treasurer of the Sodality at the present time. Mrs. John Baumann, sister of the bride, and her husband, both of whom were former Sodallists were the witnesses at the marriage. God's blessings on the newlyweds is the wish of all the members of the Sodality.

The Red Cross class in First Aid is continuing its meetings each week in the School Auditorium. The class is held on Tuesday evenings at 7 30.

Lectures On History Of French Colonials

"French Colonial Penetration of Western New York" will be the topic of a lecture to be given by Alexander M. Stewart at the new Rochester Museum on East Ave., Wednesday, Apr. 22, at 7:45 P. M. under the auspices of the Morgan Chapter, New York Archaeological Association.

This lecture will bring out the service rendered by early Catholic writers on archaeology and history.

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETS

The monthly meeting of the Altar Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church was held Wednesday evening, Apr. 15, at 8:00 o'clock in the school auditorium. David Brady gave an interesting talk on Civilian Defense. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. George Duffy and Mrs. Anthony Mason.

Mr. Stewart has written extensively on the subject for the CATHOLIC COURIER Diocesan Review and Annual Calendar.

In England only 5 per cent of the whole population is Catholic, nevertheless, 18 per cent of the Royal Air Force is Catholic.

FATHER-SON BANQUET

The Holy Name Society and Men's Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church will hold their second Fathers and Sons Banquet on May 7 at Rochester Turn Verein.

Cyril J. Statt is chairman and William Bieker is co-chairman of the affair.

Entertainment to please all attending is being planned by Herman Walz and William Doser heading this committee. John Bittner will be in charge of speakers.

Tickets are now being distributed by Henry Schoenherr and Thomas Herlihy.

Lang was heard in an informative talk on Civilian Defense and progress being made throughout the city to meet all emergencies. Henry Schleuter, Zone Warden, talked on plans and preparations being made in Zone Z and asked for cooperation from members living in the local Zone.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Webster To Help Club Celebrate Anniversary

The folks out Webster way will help the Men's Club of St. Phillip Neri Church to celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of their new hall.

Many features are in store for all, and the folks of Webster have planned for a gala evening. This group has promised a large delegation from that town and with the regular Saturday evening group, "this should be an evening long to be remembered."

Following are the committee: Edward Schreiber, chairman; William Klmes, co-chairman; Bill and Harold Dennehey, Frank Tallie, Bill Trost, Joseph Reik, Paul Statt, Leo Meyers and Louis Kuhn.
