PEAKS ON RUSSIA

AUBURN — The Sacred Heart League of Holy Family Church held their Communion Breakfast at the Osborne Hotel on Sunday morning. The guest speaker was Father Edwin OMC, an assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, who was in Poland, the day after was declared told many interesting accounts of his vacation there and spoke of the conditions in Russia at that time. He went through Russia in order to secure visas to the United States. His days in the old country were cut short because of the war conditions. He had been sent to Poland as one of a group of Seminary students who were to pursue their higher education abroad. His talk was a real picture of life as it is really lived in Russia and proved most interesting to the members of the Sacred Heart League. Father Hickey is moderator of the League.

Altar Boys Feted

On Wednesday evening the Altar Boys of the parish held their annual Banquet and party in the High School Auditorium. The Altar Boys serving at Benediction at the Geneva exercises on Sunday evening will be Robert Morgan, T. Mlakoll, Thomas Ringwood, William Donnelly and C. Carmody.

The Holy Name Society held their April meeting at 8 o'clock in the Holy Name rooms on Thursday evening and they will conduct their "Weekly" "45" party at 8:30 on Friday evening.

Father Healy will conduct his weekly party on Tuesday evening at 8:30 in Holy Family Auditorium. A large crowd was in attendance last Tuesday and an even larger attendance is expected next week. There will be many attractive prizes.

Sell War Stamps

The High School and Grammar School students are to be commended again this month for their patriotic spirit for during the month of March they sold U. S. war stamps amounting to $413.00 bringing their total up to $915.

ROLL OF HONOR

By MARYROSE BARRON
 AUBURN — Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen is anxious to complete his list of parishioners who are serving in the Armed Forces. He is asking the parents or near relatives of any young man in the Army, Navy or Marines to please leave the enlisted man's name, his branch of service and the date he enlisted at the rectory so that his Roll of Honor may be published in the Parish Weekly and placed in the vestibule of the church.

Junior Sodality

The Rev. Dennis Hickey, moderator of the Junior Sodality, is making plans for the Sodality Bazaar which will be held on Wednesday evening, May 6 at 8 o'clock in Lyceum Hall. The proceeds of the Bazaar will be used to send delegates to the Summer School of Catholic Action. For many years St. Mary's Sodality has had a representative attending these Sodality sessions and the course has always proven most beneficial to the Sodality as St. Mary's follows strictly the plan which is laid down by the Central Office at St. Louis, Mo. St. Mary's is more anxious than ever before to have a representative at the School this year for the subject which will be treated in detail will be "What Catholics Can Offer to the Peace That Follows Victory."
 The faculty of former years will be present and the Rev. Daniel Lord, S.J., noted youth leader and head of the Summer School since its inception will be in charge again this year. Father LeBuffe, Eastern Sodality Leader and noted author, will also be a member of the faculty. The course for 1942 will deal with the role that the educated Catholic must play if we are to secure permanent peace, and Miss Dorothy Willman will teach the Sodality Organization Course which is so necessary for the Sodality officers. The Summer Schools will be held in New Orleans, St. Louis, St. Paul, Boston, New York and Chicago.

Assisting Father Hickey in his Bazaar Plans will be Miriam Hickey, President of the Junior Sodality; Gertrude Burns, First Vice President; Marjorie Hickey, second vice president; Jean Mitchell, Secretary and Elizabeth Bradley, Treasurer and the following heads of committees: Louise Clampl, Mary Finazzo, Dolores Robinson, Anne Simmons, Elizabeth Falsey, Monica Robinson, Anne Lane and Marie Antonacci.

The annual Minstrel Show given by the High School Club of St. Mary's Church will be presented on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 20th and 21st at 8:15 in Lyceum Hall. Final rehearsals for this popular entertainment are being held this week. The "Modern Minstrels of 1942" has a chorus of fifty voices and promises to be an interesting evening's entertainment. The chorus has been carefully trained by Gerald Conroy and there will be solos by gifted members tap dancing and novelty. The music which has been carefully selected by the director consists of popular songs including many favorite patriotic numbers. Paul Landers has prepared a variety of jokes and promises something new and different. John Quigley has been chosen interlocutor and he will be ably supported by his six endmen.

The Christian Doctrine classes for children of the parish who attend public grammar schools were resumed on Monday afternoon and will be held each Monday and Friday afternoons after school.

The boys declared that Wednesday was a "wow of a night" for that was amateur stunt night and the boys found that their companions were very good impersonators. It was difficult to pick the winner but according to reports Ted Driscoll and Jackie Welch came out best. Ted Driscoll impersonated the great Gildersleeve and Jackie Welch took off a famous young lady of radio fame who is noted for her program of recipes. Many good times were had by all. Jack Walsh had to take a lot of kidding about his dog "Ginger" who was the mascot of Troop No. 2 because Jackie had to spend most of his time looking after "Ginger" much to the boys amusement. One of the visitors at Camp was Ted Driscoll's dog, "Mickey" who was so homesick for his master that he had to see that no harm was coming to Ted. But the great compliment of all to Gus Pine and his cooking was the fact that Johnnie Callahan declared that the "cooking was swell" and that he had had plenty to eat, and the boys of Troop No. 2 say that this is a real tribute.

Boy Scouts Troop 2

The members of Troop No. 2, Boy Scouts of America, of St. Mary's Parish returned on Friday morning after a three day stay at Camp Rotary on the East side of Owasco Lake, confident that they had had "the time of their lives". Gus Pine, Scout Leader and his assistant Johnnie Sullivan had an interesting program worked out for the boys, consisting of hikes, Treasure hunts, outdoor games, test passing and Scout Quiz Contests.

Mr. Pine declared that the boys had benefited greatly from their stay and had completed all the necessary Scout Tests most successfully. The following members of Troop No. 2 spent the three days at Camp Rotary: William Hickey, Edward Walsh, John Welch, Peter Walsh, Dick Ganey, Frank Antonacci, Pat Donovan, Edward Driscoll, Edward Secaur, John Fallon, Bob Brown, Warren Van Riper, John Callahan, Bob Brown, Warren Van Riper, John Callahan, Bob Glynn and David Smith.

SOCIETY'S COMMUNION

AUBURN — Next Sunday will be the Sunday for the members of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society. The members will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass. They will hold their weekly card party in the parish house next Wednesday, Monday evening the Holy Name Society held their April meeting at 7 o'clock at the Parish House on Genesee Street. Following the business meeting movies were shown.

The Young Ladies Sodality of the parish held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Recreation Hall on Water Street. Rev. Gerard Amann is moderator of the group.

Service Honor Roll

A list of soldiers, sailors and marines composed of young men of St. Alphonsus Parish is published in the vestibule of the church. The parishioners have been asked to say the following prayer for soldiers: "O God, I beseech Thee, watch over the souls of those who are exposed to the horrors of war, and to the spiritual dangers peculiar to a soldier's life. Give them such strong faith that no human respect may ever lead them to deny Thee, or fear to practice Thee, and do Thou by Thy grace fortify them against the contagion of bad example, that being preserved from vice and serving Thee faithfully they may be ready to meet death whenever it may arrive. Through Jesus Christ, Our Lord Amen. Mother of God be with them on the battlefield during life and at the hour of death, and obtain for them that they may die in the grace of Thy Son. Amen. May their Guardian Angel bless and protect them. Amen."

The Christian Doctrine classes for children of the parish who attend public grammar schools were resumed on Monday afternoon and will be held each Monday and Friday afternoons after school.

Eminent Actress Returns To 'Road'

OTTAWA.—Return to the road of Margaret Anglin, internationally known Canadian Catholic actress, is of particular interest to Ottawa, of which she is a daughter.

Miss Anglin is a daughter of the late Timothy Anglin, second Speaker of the Canadian House of Commons following Confederation and the first Catholic to hold that honor. Her brother, the late F. A. Anglin, was the former Chief Justice of Canada. She is a Lactaria Medalist, receiving the Notre Dame University award in 1927.
