S R O TO PRESENT MUSICAL

Students Write Original Play At Nazareth

By BONNIE GARDNER "V FOR VARIETY" the first musical produced by S. R. O. of Nazareth College will be presented in the new auditorium on Wednesday evening at 8:15, on April 29, with a repeat performance on Thursday evening.

The theme for this presentation is the idea of a play within a play. Variety College for girls is producing a variety show; all the songs, dances, and acts are original.

A song and dance "The Gold and Purple Stomp"—so named from the College colors—was written by Doris Dierdorf who also wrote "She Waan't Hep." Joan Dugan is the director of the dances.

The show opens with "Campus Rampus"—music by Ellen Flynn and words by Aynn Miller, who also wrote "I Need a Song."

Since no show is ever complete without a few sentimental lyrics, Betty Harris helped out by writing "I Keep Forgetting We're Through"; then she and Joan Ryan collaborated on "Such a Love Is Rare." Roberta Miller contributed her songs, "Yours Sincerely" and "You Changed My Life."

Another team, Jane Kreckel and Robert Miller, produced "Chalk It Up to Love," a song in the Astrology scene.

Oh, yes, we have, too, the "Corpuscle song and dance by Red, White and Blue Corpuscles."

This Musical was written by Margaret Culhane and Mildred Curtin and directed by Mildred Curtin.

Jane Kreckel is general chairman. Music, Roberta Miller; Dances, Joan Dugan; Properties, Catherine Meisenahl; Lighting, Mary Agnes Usher; Scenery, Barbara Kelley; Costumes, Jean Flanagan; Make-up, Pat Quinn; Tickets, Ruth Lorenz; Invitations, Helen O'Brien; Publicity, Kaye Lechleitner, Jane O'Brien and Bonnie Gardner; Posters, Edna Sorendo; Patrons, Rosemary Welch; Ushers, Ruth Heckler and Caroline Kelley, freshmen; sponsores, Helen Hammond and Kay Coon; juniors, Joyce Loftus and Suzanne DePrez; seniors, Betty Hendrick and Catherine Roe.

The cast of this 3-act play includes Mary Harris as "Penny"; Betty Vandercell as "Kit"; Marilyn Moore as "Daffy"; Betty Mulcahy as "Betty"; Evelyn Gilroy as "Dolce"; and also Rita Fagan, Jeanne Schlitzer, Aynn Miller, Betty Quinn, Mary Fitzgerald, Katy Griswold, Rosemary Tierney and Eileen Tiernen.

BOOKS ABOUT MARY

OUR BLESSED LADY $1.00

By Rev. Kilan J. Hennrich, O.F.M. Cap. "One of the saddest spiritual spectacles in our midst today is a Catholic who, while pious enough to attend devotions regularly, is nevertheless, a slave to routine formulas of prayer. For this an immediate remedy will be found in Our Blessed Lady, a... booklet filled with brief meditations on the Angelus, The Litany of Loretto and the Rosary. A brief reading will enrich one's mind and heart with thoughts and affections hitherto unknown or disregarded."—The Jesuit Missions. 120 pages.

SALVE REGINA $2.00

By Rev. Joseph E. Snyder. Happily chosen is the title for this volume of meditations hailing, as it does, the Queen of Heaven and Earth in all the mysteries of her life. A fervent and unquestioning love for the Blessed Mother of God burned in the heart of the late Father Snyder as he penned these tributes. Intended for lay people as well as priests and religious, this beautifully finished book reflects the best thoughts of the classical treatises on the Blessed Mother. 240 pages.
