TRIDUUM SERVICES HELD

By DOLORES E. HANRAHAN
In compliance with a request of Bishop Kearney, a triduum in observance of the Feast of the Patronage of St. Joseph was held in St. Ann's Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. Services each evening began with the recitation of the Rosary. Special prayers in honor of St. Joseph were offered, and the services closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
As was explained at all Masses last Sunday, the triduum was offered to invoke the protection of St. Joseph upon the Church, especially during the trying days of war.
Each member of the parish has been urgently requested to receive Holy Communion on Sunday, April 20, when all the Masses will be celebrated in honor of the Patronage of St. Joseph.

Forty Hours Scheduled
Solemn Forty Hours devotions will open at St. Ann's Church at the close of the eleven o'clock Mass Sunday morning, April 20.

Evening services will be held Sunday and Monday at 7:45 o'clock, with the solemn closing on Tuesday evening.
The Rev. John Albert of St. Mary's Church in Corning and the Rev. Thomas C. Kane of St. Patrick's Church in Corning will speak at the evening services.

Miller-Mike

The marriage of Miss Anna Mary Mike and Joseph J. Miller, both of Hornell, was solemnized Saturday morning, April 18, at St. Ann's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett. The bride received her first Holy Communion at the Nuptial Mass which followed.

Miss Anna Miller, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Angela Gallese was best man. Frank Miller was usher. Following the ceremony, a breakfast and reception were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller for 50 guests.
Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Hornell High School. Mr. Miller was employed at the Hornell Country Club before his resignation, which was made because of his induction in the Army in the near future.

St. Mary's (Watkins Glen)

EIGHTY-TWO CONFIRMED

WATKINS GLEN — Sunday, April 19, 1942, will live in the minds and hearts of the parishioners of St. Mary's Church, Watkins Glen, as a glorious and memorable day, especially for those who received the fortifying sacrament of "confirmation." This loving sacrament was administered by the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, in a most impressive and colorful ceremony.

At 12:30 p. m., the confirmation class of 82 members, including eighteen converts, met at the convent for final preparations and then were directed to the front pews of the church by the Sister Superior.

A large number of people, many from out of town and from distant cities, sacrificed in order to be present for this event; these people lined the walk on either side, forming a pathway for the bishop from the rectory to the church. At 1:30 o'clock, His Excellency appeared at the rectory door in festal robes, accompanied by the Rev. Lawrence E. Casey, and Rev. Thomas Carroll. They were preceded by six acolytes, bearing the torches denated by the confirmation class, the cross bearer and altar boys, and two page boys richly dressed in royal velvet. The procession proceeded majestically, then as they entered the church, those to be confirmed rose in their places, and with vibrant voices commenced singing the beautiful strains of "Come Holy Ghost, Creator Blest."

A most inspiring sermon on the significance and the happy effect of confirmation was given by our beloved Bishop. Soon after the sacred rites began. The boys in dark suits with red boys and ties, and the girls dressed in white with red tassels on their tams, joyfully approached the altar railing while the choir sang Franck's four-part composition, "Pans Angelicus." Other numbers sung by the choir included "My God, Accept My Heart This Day," "Inviolata," and "Confirma Hoc Deus."

The ceremony closed with benediction and the singing of "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," as the procession proceeded from the church. The exultant tones in which the last hymn was sung brought a thrill of joy to the hearts of listeners and a feeling of being borne on the wings of a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to the Good God Above.
