Dutch Soldiers Present Vestments to English Church

LONDON.—Dutch soldiers who spent several months in Congleton, Cheshire, have presented a set of Mass vestments to the church there in memory of their stay. For nearly a year they had their own Mass in the church, and at Christmas and at Easter they broadcast to Holland during High Mass.
 Congleton Catholics are reported to have been much edified by the active Catholicity of the troops of the Royal Dutch army.
