KNIGHTS AT COMMUNION

Commandery 43, Knights of St. John, together with Ladies' Auxiliary 284, received Communion as a body at St. Michael's Church, Sunday Apr. 28. Rev. Arthur F. Florack, pastor of St. Michael's, celebrated Mass which was followed by a Communion breakfast in the parish hall.

John Schneider was chairman of the breakfast committee, and Rufus Maier acted as hostmaster. The principal speaker was John Hurley of the faculty of the Rochester Firemen's College, and his talk was enthusiastically received. Other speakers included Father Florack, Col. Fred Wegman of the Rochester Regiment, Capt Victor Knittel of St. George Commandery, Vice-President Herman W. I. Florence, Schwind, representing the Ladies' Auxiliary Drill Team; Capt. Louis Wetzelau, who is Drillmaster for the Ladies' Auxiliary; Battalion-Adjutant Clarence Schoonman and William A. Lang, city defense co-ordinator.

Mr. Lang's suggestion that a regimental historian be appointed for the immediate purpose of recording the war service of Knights of St. John was promised careful consideration by Colonel Wegman. The affair was concluded by a showing of British official war films. John Schneider is still receiving congratulations for the remarkable success of this annual event.

RAISE RED CROSS FUNDS

By MARGERY BERNARD
The various societies of the Immaculate Conception Church in the past month have contributed approximately $150.00 to the Red Cross. At the Thursday Night Party the net proceeds of a special game are set aside solely for the Red Cross. This amounts to about 20.00 per week and the total is announced by Al Sigi in his Friday broadcast. The I. C. Y. A. has held two Red Cross dances and has given $20.00 to the fund. At the recent Easter Card Party held by the Rosary Guild, a campaign netted $18.00. Other Societies of the Church are now making plans so that they too may have a part in the great work of the American Red Cross.

Charles J. Bruton, pastor of St. Margaret Mary's Church, and Richard O'Toole of the Ira Jacobson Post of the American Legion. Members of the Post will act as a guard of honor at the presentation.
