

Bishop To Celebrate Mass In Famous Cavern

ST. PABLO Soliman Pontifical Mass in an unusual setting will be celebrated on Sunday May 7, in the Cuzubal Caverns National Park, 1,500 feet below the surface of the earth.

The Mass will mark the opening of the State convention of the New Mexico Knights of Columbus. The celebrant of the Mass will be the Most Rev. Anthony J. Schuyler, B.J. Bishop of El Paso, in whose diocese the Cuzubal Caverns are located. The sermon will be preached by the Most Rev. Sidney M. Metzger, Coadjutor Bishop of El Paso.

Pride is a one-man parade. Rev. Paschall Boland, O.S.B.

Night Reverend Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, D. D., of the Catholic University of Washington, D. C., is narrator in the 10-reel sound film of the Catholic Solemn Mass, "The Eternal Gift." Monsignor Sheen is one of America's best known pulpits and radio orators, being the principal speaker on the "Catholic Hour" over NBC stations each Sunday.

Catholic Workers Spur Mass Film Ticket Sale

The Catholic Workers of Rochester are concentrating their efforts on the advance ticket sale for the motion picture "The Eternal Gift," which will be shown at the Regent Theatre beginning May 14. The Ticket Committee for this project has announced that the House of Hospitality, to which the proceeds will be given, will benefit only from the sale of those tickets which are purchased in advance of the movie showing.

Parish organizations which are meeting within the next week are urged to promote the picture, and in this connection, the Catholic Workers will furnish a speaker who will discuss the work of the House of Hospitality, as well as the presentation of "The Eternal Gift." Representatives of each parish will also have tickets in the various churches after the Masses on Sunday, May 10.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, internationally known as one of America's finest radio and pulpit orators, is narrator for this full-length picture of "The Eternal Gift" has received the highest comment from newspaper critics as well as from the ecclesiastical dignitaries.

Featured with "The Eternal Gift" will be "Young America." The Aquinas Glee Club will also be presented on the stage on Thursday evening, May 14; Mercy High's Glee Club will sing on Friday evening, May 15; and the Academy of the Sacred Heart Choral Group will appear on Monday evening, May 18. ## Knights of St. John To Go To Syracuse

Arrangements by Secretary Al Bossart and President Louis J. Kuhn of the Second and Third Degree Team of the Rochester Regiment of the Knights of St. John have been completed for the expedition to Holy Cross Corn. 37 at the Parish Hall on 812 N. Salina St., Syracuse, on Sunday, May 24.

The Rochester team has been rehearsing for the past few weeks, and have now a fine new set-up. Arrangements will be completed this week with the New York Central, and if there are any Rochester Knights who wish to make the journey with the team, they can do so by calling Secretary Al Bossart at his home, Gen. 4072-R. It is expected a large delegation has planned to make the trip. All are welcome.
