HOLY FAMILY PARISH

Parish Orchestra Appears

By HELEN MACCHIA

The Holy Family Orchestra will make its third public appearance Friday, May 8, at the first annual May Party to be held in the Parish Auditorium. The orchestra's first public appearance was last month when it played at a card party and dance held by Father Heisel's former parish, St. Joseph's Church, Wayland. At the April Party at Holy Family, the orchestra gave a wonderful rendition of old and popular music. This Friday night, the musicians promise to render many well-known and well-loved tunes. There will be dancing for everyone — even the Virginia Reel and Square Dances, if you wish. A fine singing program has been arranged.

The Holy Family Trio include Ethel Friday, Geraldine Barth and Alice St. James. Mary Jane Haubner, Geraldine Dentinger and George Sophie will have solos. This orchestra, which is becoming well-known, has been organized after the untiring efforts and interest of the pastor, Father Heisel. William Metzger is the conductor of the orchestra. The following are the players: Piano, Joseph Snyder; flute, Joe LaFranca; accordion, Eddie Heisel; saxophones, Bill Burke, Bernie Deiley, Harold Singer, John Pilato; sousaphone, Chuck Klueber; baritone horn, Jack Radel; trumpets, Bob Schmebeck, Dick Bartholomay, Bob Spahn; drums, John Kendrot.

At the general monthly meeting of the parish, Girl Scout Leaders and Committee, last week, the following volunteered to assist on the Refreshment Committee for tonight's Party: Miss Marjorie Springer, Miss Edna Gessner, Miss Martha Schuey, Mrs. Maryann Mandara, Mrs. Rudolph Vay, Miss Helen Macchia and Mrs. Carl Werner. Friday night, as far as possible, all parishioners and friends of the parish will be present for the Party.

HOLY NAME MEETING

At the regular monthly meeting this week of the Holy Name Society of the parish, a report was made on the progress of enrolling new members for two months. The present members have been endeavoring to comply with Bishop Kearney's wishes—that every man in the diocese be a "Holy Name man."

Holy Family Girl Scout Leaders and Assistants will be host to the Genesee District of the Rochester Council of Girl Scout Leaders on Tuesday evening, May 19, in Holy Family Auditorium. Mrs. Rose G. Long is general chairman.

This week Duck Pin Leagues were formed. The men meet on Wednesday night; and the women's league meets on Thursday evening. The men's pinchele club meets every Monday evening in the parish Recreation Hall. The bowling alleys are open every evening until July 1.

Every Wednesday and Friday evening during May, Mary's month, devotions are held at 7:30. On Wednesday evening these devotions will be held after the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Novena. Confessions are heard before and after the 1:45 P. M. Novena service in the afternoon and after the evening service.

Tickets for the movie on the Mass, "The Eternal Gift," will be sold in the vestibule of the church on Sunday, May 10, after each Mass.

Sunday, Mother's Day, and also World Sodality Sunday, will be marked in a special way by the Sodality of Holy Family Parish. At 3 P. M., members of the Sodality will arrange themselves in the form of a living rosary, followed by a procession. The sermon at this service will be preached by Rev. Joseph J. O'Connell of Nazareth Academy. All parishioners are invited to these services.

ROSARY SOCIETY

The Rosary Society of Holy Family Church will have its regular monthly business meeting on Wednesday evening, May 13, immediately following the Novena Services. Mrs. Wm. Wilhelm will preside at the meeting which will be followed by a social hour.

Hostesses will include Mrs. Ben Semrau, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Susan Missler, Mrs. Leona Bartholomay, Mrs. Mary Nihill, Mrs. Florence Zimmer, Mrs. Wm. Heitarich and Mrs. Barbara Lenhard.

ST. BONIFACE PARISH

MYSTERY PLAY

By MARGARET D. MILES

The new dramatic club of St. Boniface will present its first play, "A Blackout Mystery" on Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 11 and 12. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Schenck.

The cast includes John Holburn, George White, Arthur Heveron, Richard Miller, James McCabe, Robert Williams, Joyce Miller, Ethel Rutman, Betty Ruby, Esther West, Virginia Klee, Virginia McGlynn, Dorothy Hosenfeld, Mary Clare Haering and Marie Sadler.

The usherettes under the chairmanship of Dorothy Hosenfeld will be Bernice Scheible, Margaret Moran, Monica Norman, Jess Elmanna, Ruth Williams, Catherine Oberlies, Jane Haering, Marjorie Anderson, Mildred Kramer, Arline Kramer, Lillian Termitte and Jean Hosenfeld.

Byron Hazen is stage manager, Bernice Scheible is chairman of the ticket committee, and Monica Norman is in charge of programs. The properties are being handled by William Schleyer, John Reinhardt, Bernard Elmann, Richard Andre, Bernard Trompeter and Robert Cook. Mary Kehoe and Ann Fennessy are on the make-up committee and Catherine Oberlies, Milton Schaefer and George Jamieson are handling publicity.

Tickets are 40c with reserved seats 15c extra. The later may be obtained at the rectory. For further information contact any member of the committee.

SODALITY BREAKFAST

The Sodality of Mary will hold their annual Communion breakfast after the 7:00 o'clock Mass on Sunday, May 10. The girls who will be received into the Sodality will be guests of the Sodality. All members are urged to attend.
