Sodaltalk

May 9—It's not far off. That is the date of the Union Banquet. If possible reservations should be made with the parish prefect who will then turn her list over to Beverly McLaughlin Chairman of Reservations Dep't. wait for the deadline. Get in touch with the prefect before May 21. All Sodalists are invited.

Holy Ghost Sodality reports that Our Lady's Committee has arranged to have some committee member or someone from her family at Mass each day during the month of May. Sunday, May 10, will find Holy Ghost Sodalists celebrating World Sodality Day by attending a Holy Hour for peace.

Following a suggestion made at Union meeting, Marie Statt and her Apostolic Committee cut out small umbrellas as a reminder of an April Shower for the Missions. The Shower was announced at Sunday Mass and the umbrellas were distributed to each family, to be returned on the following Sunday with gifts for the Missions. Returns were made but have not as yet been recorded.

Sodalities throughout the city are celebrating World Sodality Day on Sunday, May 10. In connection with Mother's Day, St. Michael's is holding a Mothers and Daughters' Banquet on Wednesday, May 6. The banquet will be followed by a play, "Never Trust a Man."

Mercy High has planned World Sodality Day for May 7. Sodalists will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body. Thursday afternoon students will assemble on the school campus for a Living Rosary. A procession to Our Lady's Grotto will follow.

Sodalists of St. Patrick's are having their Mothers as special guests at their Sodality meeting on Friday, May 8. Our Blessed Mother is the special guest of honor. Meeting will commence, as usual, with the Little Office to Our Lady and Benediction at 7:45 P. M. A very interesting Business and Social meeting is being planned for the Mothers. Some of the highlights are: a skit entitled "A Sodalist's Mother," which is being presented by the Social Committee; a musical skit; community singing, soloists singing "Mother Beloved" and delicious refreshments.

For World Sodality and Mother's Day, May 10, the Sodalists are receiving Holy Communion together with their Mothers at the 7 o'clock Mass. A Communion Breakfast will follow for the mothers and daughters. At the Breakfast, the mothers will individually be presented with a Spiritual Bouquet from their daughters. A special one will be placed at the feet of Our Blessed Mother. There will be a guest speaker. Other guests are the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Pastor; Rev. Charles B. Connell, Rev. Bartholomew O'Brian, and the Mesdames O'Brien and Connell. A beautiful shrine to Our Lady will be erected. Our Lady's and Social Committees are in charge of the Breakfast. The Misses Rose Chiappone and Helen Gravino are the co-chairmen.

A Display will be erected in the vestibule of the Church on this day, showing the activities of the Sodality in the past year. This is being done to make the Parish Sodality-minded on World Sodality Day.

N. B.—This is to remind Sodalities throughout the city that supplies for reception, i. e., medals, cards and the like should be ordered soon if they are to be received in time for the coming ceremonies.

Mercy Cast Set For 'Curtain'

Amid an exotic Spanish atmosphere of tambourines, castanets, and patios, intensified by Indian bird calls the romantic but pathetic story of "Ramona" will come to life in the auditorium of Our Lady of Mercy High School, Blossom Road, May 11 and 12.

The leading feminine role of Ramona will be portrayed by Arlene Mostyn and Fern Smith, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, respectively. The male lead will be taken by John Reagan of Aquinas Institute at both performances.

Others in the cast are Nancy Brown, Lorraine Mauucci, Rita Chimera, Marguerite Gruntler, Betty Jane Marzulo, Shirley Jager, Marie Hafner, Mary Patricia Kenning, Margaret Mary Conley and Jane Stauder.

The remaining male roles will be taken by Edward Shlesinger, George Guernot, James Maloney, Charles Speidel and John Mattis.

A melodic background will be provided by a group of songsters in gay Spanish costumes, including Shirley Collins, Mardette Drechsler, Ardelle Becker, Marjorie Craw, Audrey Loeb, Anne Flood, Virginia Valenti, Eileen Vetter, Marion Weidenborner, and Marie Wolfer.

Prompter for the play will be Ann Bayer while wardrobe mistress is Elvera Curtin. Mary Lou Schum and Mary Lou Hoderlein have charge of the properties.

Doing the make-up both nights will be Shirley Oriel and Norma Bagley. Rosemary Spearman heads the usher committee.

The school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Joseph Pierce will lend the musical setting by such pieces as Indian Love Call, Lily of the Mohawk, Ramona and Hiawatha's Call of Love.

Marie Marceau heads the Publicity Committee, assisted by Rachel Spano, Marian Hyland, Dorothy Quetchenbach and Rita Wesley.

Club Sponsors Cue Title Match As Morale Aid To Defense Workers

Believing that the morale of the defense workers who are striving hard to keep up with the stepped-up production schedules is an important factor during these strenuous war days the Men's Club of St. Margaret Marys will bring to Rochester as their first event in this new series the championship Pocket Billiard Match, featuring Erwin Rudolph, the champion, and Irving Crane, the challenger.

The match will be sanctioned by the Billiard Association of America and will be of 300 points divided into blocks of 150 points each. The opening block of the match will be underway at 3 P. M. Thursday afternoon at the Elks Club and the evening schedules will be started at prompt 8:30 P. M. The match will run through Thursday to Saturday night, inclusive, May 7, 8 and 9.

The St. Margaret Mary Group have been closely identified with outstanding sporting events for a decade. Their Soft Ball teams were runners-up in the Major League here and their Football teams have been outstanding in the semi-pro ranks. Their Bowling League numbers some of the city's best and their activities have included such top-ranking sports figures as Joe McCarthy, Frankie Frisch, Ernie Quigley, Ford Frick, George Trautman, Elmer Layden and many others. Their interest in the promotion of such events is being widely commended and it is expected that the sporting fraternity of Rochester will show their approval of such a campaign by taxing the capacity of the Elks Club Auditorium during this Championship Match.

2 Win Places In Spelling Test

MT. MORRIS—The two representatives of St. Patrick's School here, Conrad Donovan and Joan Teitsworth, placed second and fourth respectively in the parochial school spelling contest held at St. Mary's School, Dansville, on Saturday, May 2.

Other schools in the district that competed were St. Ann's of Hornell, St. Rose of Lima, St. Agnes of Avon and both St. Mary's and St. Patrick's of Dansville. A Hornell representative placed first in the contest, with a Dansville student placing third.

The four winners from this district will meet other district winners in Geneva this Saturday, May 9.

60TH ANNIVERSARY

London.—A few days after completing his eighty-fifth year, the Most Rev. John Toner, Bishop of Dunkeld, Scotland, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination.

Finals In Spelling Contest Set Saturday At Geneva

Twenty-four winners of the regional spelling contest sponsored by the CATHOLIC COURIER under the auspices of the Catholic Education Office, will compete for diocesan prizes and honors Saturday morning at De Sales High School, Geneva, at 10:00 a. m. Contests held in six different centers throughout the diocese last Saturday proved keenly interesting and resulted in these winners!

In Auburn, Joan M Kelley of Holy Family School, captured first prize in that area. Following closely behind, and thereby eligible to compete in the finals this Saturday were: Mary J. Medora of St. Aloysius School, Lillian P. DiMora, St. Mary's School, Auburn and Helen G. Austin of St. Mary's School, Auburn.

Lucy Dagon, St. Ann's School, Hornell, led spellers in the Dansville Contest. Ranking next in order were: Conrad Donovan, and Ernest Daley of St. Patrick's School, Dansville, and Joan Teitsworth, St. Patrick's, Mt. Morris.

In the Elmira area contest, Thomas O'Connor of St. Patrick's School, Owego won the first prize and following him were Josepha Kennedy of SS. Peter and Paul's, Elmira; Jean Fleury, Immaculate Conception School, Ithaca, and Harold Hart of St Casimir's School, Elmira.

June Shirley of St. Stephen's School, Geneva, spelled down the contestants in that area. The next three in line were Betty Babcock, St Patrick's, Seneca Falls, Erwin Dowd, of the same school and Emma Braell, St. Francis de Sales School, Geneva.

Heading the contest of west side schools of Rochester and Monroe County was Eleanor Chapuka of Holy Cross School. Joining her in honors was Edward Meagher of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Theresa Dieter of Sacred Heart School and Marilyn Woodruff of St. Monica's School.

Anna Flechuck of St. Michael's School won first place in the east side contest, with Doris Kohls, of St. Boniface, Richard Ostrye of Blessed Sacrament and Carl Haselmaier of St Ambrose School running up.

These contestants will all meet in De Sales High School on Saturday morning. Prizes to be awarded by the CATHOLIC COURIER include a first prize of $10.00, and a second and third prize of $5.00 each. The contestants will be entertained at lunch following the contest.

Novena To Our Lady Of Scapular Opens

NEW YORK—Led by the Most Rev. J. Francis A. McIntyre, Auxiliary Bishop of New York, 900 persons attended the first service in the new weekly novena in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular at the national shrine here. The service marked the first anniversary of the Scapular Militia. A guard of honor composed of six Catholic soldiers and sailors escorted the Bishop. Scapulars were distributed during the service.
