Night Reverend, Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, D. D., of the Catholic University of Washington, D. C., is narrator in the 10-reel sound film of the Catholic Home Mass, "The Eternal Gift." Monsignor Sheen is one of America's best known pulpits and radio orators, being the principal speaker of the "Catholic Hour" over NBC stations each Sunday.

Catholic Workers Spur Mass Film Ticket Sale

The Catholic Workers of Rochester are concentrating their efforts on the advance ticket sale for the motion picture "The Eternal Gift," which will be shown at the Regent Theatre beginning May 14. The Ticket Committee for this project has announced that the House of Hospitality, to which the proceeds will be given, will benefit only from the sale of those tickets which are purchased in advance of the movie showing.

Parish organizations which are meeting within the next week are urged to promote the picture and in this connection, the Catholic Workers will furnish a speaker who will discuss the work of the House of Hospitality, as well as the presentation of "The Eternal Gift." Representatives of each parish will also have tickets in the various churches after the Masses on Sunday, May 10.

Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, internationally known as one of America's finest radio and pulpit orators, is narrator for this full-length picture of a Solemn High Mass. "The Eternal Gift" has received the highest comment from newspaper critics as well as from the ecclesiastical dignitaries.

Featured with "The Eternal Gift" will be "Young America." The Aquinas Glee Club will also be presented on the stage on Thursday evening, May 14. Mercy High's Glee Club will sing on Friday evening, May 15; and the Academy of the Sacred Heart Choral Group will appear on Monday evening, May 18.
