BE SURE TO SEE THE ETERNAL GIFT At The Regent

Showing of 'The Eternal Gift'—Motion Picture of the Mass Opens At Regent

College, High School Singing Groups To Be Heard With Film

A radical departure from the usual run of film fare will be presented on the screen of the Regent Theatre for a week's engagement starting Thursday, with the showing of 'The Eternal Gift.' This is the Servite Fathers offering of the Catholic Solemn Mass, with a running explanation by Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen.

During the engagement of the above program, arrangements have been made which will interest those who like stage entertainment and good music.

Thursday evening, the Aquinas Glee Club will offer a program on the stage, followed on Friday night at 8:30 p. m. by the Mercy High Glee Club. Monday night will be highlighted by the appearance of the Academy of the Sacred Heart Choral Group and Tuesday night the Nazareth College Glee Club will be presented.

The singing organizations have many supporters throughout the city as judged by the numbers of friends who have already purchased their tickets to be present the night they appear.

11-Year-Old Boy Adopts Soldier From This City

A youthful prayer crusader from Virginia has written a touching letter to Private Paul D. Ryan, Medical Detachment, 20th Field Artillery at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Private Ryan who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ryan, 736 Parsons Ave., this city received this assurance from an 11-year-old boy that he is being remembered.

1352 West 48th St. Norfolk, Va.

Dear Mr. Ryan, Maybe you thought that you were going to get a girl for a Crusader, but I am a boy. My name is Joseph Hernandez, but you can call me Joe. I am in the sixth grade and I am 11.

The other day all the children who were Crusaders had to give something for you soldiers. I gave some candy bars, other children gave cigarettes, cookies and many other things. I hope you soldiers enjoy them just as we enjoyed giving them.

I am a Catholic and I will always remember you in my prayers.

I want you to write me and tell me all about the Army life because I like the Army very much. I want you to write me a letter and send me your picture and then I will send you a long letter and I will send you my picture. I will be waiting for you to write. My address is 1352 West 48th St. Your Crusader Joseph.

Catholic Biblical Association Formed

LONDON - (NC) - A Catholic Biblical Association has been formed in this country.

Plans, approved by the Hierarchy, were discussed at the annual conference of Ecclesiastical Studies, held at Cambridge. The Association will organize meetings and publish books designed to interest Catholics and non-Catholics in the Bible. Membership is open to all, the annual fee being equivalent to about 50c. The secretary is the Rev. D. Fuller, of St. Edmund's College, Old Hall, Ware, Herts.

Every light is not a fire.
