MRS. DOYLE ELECTED

The Rosary and Scapular Society of Holy Family Parish held their May meeting on Thursday evening at which time officers for the Year 1942-1943 were elected. The officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Stephen J. Doyle, First Vice-President, Mrs. Stuart R. Treat, Second Vice-President, Mrs. Harry T. Cunningham; Secretary, Mrs. Anne Stevens, and Treasurer, Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway. Mrs. Harry T. Cunningham, retiring president, presided at the May meeting. Following the business session games were played and refreshments served.

High School Play

The Senior Class of Holy Family High School presented the "Pampered Darling," a one-act play by Beatrice Humiston McNeil on Monday evening in the Auditorium before a capacity crowd. The play was directed by Mrs. Thomas Dillon. Most of the action in the play centered around Victor, the spoiled young brother of the Gibbons Girls, better known as the "kid brother." Norman Evans, a young college student and his friend, Dr. Rudolph Von Hapsburger tried to convince everyone that Victor was trying to spoil the plans for their house party and made the situation more hilarious than ever. Victor was played by Raymond Wall; the Gibbons Sisters by Kathryn Cutler and Betty Casey; and the two medical students by John Scullin and William Renahan. Others in the cast included Paul Dunleavy, Miriam Hickey, Irene Delaney, Betty Quigley, Alexandria Mahon and William Costello.

The second attraction of the evening was a picturesque pageant of Democracy entitled "Freemen." The High School chorus of one hundred students narrated in song and by choral speech the history of the United States. A few of the important scenes were: The Landing of the Pilgrims, The Settling of the West, The Stephen Foster Era, the Civil War Period, and World War I. Among the oldtime favorites sung by the chorus were "Yankee Doodle," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Beautiful Dreamer," "Dixie," "Your Land and My Land" and "Over There." Joseph O'Donnell acted as narrator and the Choric Speakers were six members of Junior Class: Esther Warier, Dorothy Woods, Marjorie Delaney, Jane Quinsey, Kathryn Cregg and Dorothy Gunderson. Costumes representative of different areas in the nation's history were worn by the pupils and the leading roles in the "Free Men" were portrayed by Jean Bennett, Mary Wilson, Jean McDowell, Margaret Doyle, William Doyle, Peter Cool, Robert Flynn and John Nolan. Music was furnished by the High School Orchestra.

The Altar Boys of Holy Family Church enjoyed a Sausage Roast at Cayuga Lake State Park on Ascension Day.

College Honors

William M. Foster, valedictorian of the Class of 1938 of Holy Family High School, received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Finance from the College of Commerce of Notre Dame University at the 30th Annual Commencement exercises. The Commencement exercises were held on Sunday. Mr. Foster's father and mother and his brother, Robert, were present at the exercises. John Geberin, also a member of the Class of 1938 of Holy Family High School received his degree from Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., last Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. John Geberin and family attended their son's Commencement exercises.

Flower Guild Fetes Mothers - Daughters

AUBURN—The Flower Guild of Mercy Hospital held their annual Mothers and Daughters Dinner on Tuesday evening at West High School. The guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. Martin J. Watley of the Diocese of Syracuse, well known speaker who is heard each Sunday afternoon on the Catholic Hour program over Station WSYR.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. William R. Cowen, pastor of St. Mary's Church and the closing blessing was given by the Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway of Holy Family Church. Miss Kathryn A. Nugent was toastmistress and guests included Miss Isabel T. Gass, advisor of the Flower Guild, Dr. Roland J. Walker, chief of staff of Mercy Hospital, the Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonsus Church; the Rev. Jerome Heldewicz, S.M.C., pastor of St. Hyacinth's Church; the Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church; the Rev. Adolph Gokbeni, pastor of St. Francis Church and the Rev. John F. Feary of Auburn, New York.

The committee in charge of reservations consisted of Mrs. Roland Walker, Mrs. Frederick Arvidson, Mary Agnes Brennan, Alice Kirwan, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Joseph Shaw and the members of the Reception Committee were Mrs. Frederick Kerr, Mrs. Harry T. Doyle, Mrs. Darrell D. Atkinson, Mrs. Edward McCarthy, Mrs. William E. Bosley and Miss Margaret Bailey. Following the program games were enjoyed.

MAN'S PURPOSE

Herr Fuhs-Miller truly says, "Bolshevism aims at more than the confiscation of private property; it is trying to confound human dignity."—From "Lenin to Christopher Hollis."

Easy On Relatives

Admitting that economy in Mardi Gras is a good thing it reader suggests that it might be well not to write in relation to decorated valentine's envelopes. There may be something in that. Eva Jungen of London Universe.

Maybe it's a dumb bell when she gets in a cab they have the "Vacant" sign up.
