MAY QUEEN AT NAZARETH College. Miss Mildred Curtin is crowned by Ellen Foley, vice president of the Undergraduate Association in colorful traditional ceremony conducted yesterday on the East Ave. campus.

Mildred Curtin Crowned 'May Queen' At Nazareth

By Bonnie Gardner

The traditional May Day rites of Nazareth College were carried out in all their beauty at the May Day celebration, Wednesday, May 20, at the new campus on East Avenue.

First on the program was a Mass at 8:30 celebrated by His Excellency Bishop Kearney. Then began the procession from class shrine to class shrine; the theme of this year's tableaux was taken from the Litany of the Blessed Virgin: Freshmen—"Help of Christians," Lois Stoller represented the Madonna for this class. Sophomores—"Cause of our Joy," Our Lady being portrayed by Pat Goodwin. Junior—"Queen of the Holy Rosary," Mary Anne Burn as the Virgin. Senior—"Queen of Peace," with Bernadine Baier as the Madonna. Sodality Shrine—"Seat of Wisdom," Clarise Martins as Our Lady. The entire student body proceeded from tableau to tableau while reciting the Litany and singing hymns. Following this, Benediction was held outside. This completed the morning spiritual exercises.

At 3:00 P. M. the eagerly awaited crowning of the May Queen took place. The Queen, Mildred Curtin, crowned by Ellen Foley, Vice-President of the Undergraduate Association, was attended by two representatives from each class; those of the senior class being Jean Dunigan and Jane Armbruster; Juniors—Joyce Loftus and Jane Loftus; Sophomores—Mary Harris and Bonnie Gardner; Freshmen—Dorothy Wegman and Catherine Griewald. Following the Coronation, the May Folk Dance, directed by Dorothy O'Malley, was carried out before the throne of the Queen.

The colorful pageant, Robin Hood, ended the afternoon events. This was written by Mildred Curtin and directed by Cathy Stett and Margaret Volpe. Rosemary Welch played the part of Robin Hood; Suzanne de Prez—Lady Miriam; Nancy Dinsen—Friar Tuck; Joan Ryan—Little John; Beverly Jones—Will Statelby; Dorothy Reddington—Will Scarlet; Tone Luraschl—Sheriff of Nottingham; also included in the cast were foresters and dancers.

That same evening, the annual big sister and little sister banquets were held. The Senior-Sophomore dinner was held at the
