The children have received their instructions from the Rev. Raymond Wood. Assisting the Bishop in the Sacrament will be the Rev. Lawrence H. Casey, Rev. John Muckle, Rev. Arthur Florack and Rev. George Weismann.

ROSARY SOCIETY

After the Novena Services on Tuesday evening, May 20, the Rosary Society will hold its regular monthly meeting, at which a motion picture of outstanding merit will be shown. Refreshments will also be served.

HOLY NAME OFFICERS

At the last meeting of the Holy Name Society which was very well attended, the following officers were re-elected: President, Arthur Boehley; Recording Secretary, John Haberger; Financial Secretary, William Schneider; Marshal, Fred Frisch; Treasurer, Walter Boel. The newly elected officers are Vice-President Jacob Bauer and Marshal George McCroth.

VICTORY MINISTERS

The Victory Minister came to a delightful close last Sunday evening when the entire choir, directors and workers, numbering nearly one hundred, celebrated a happy reunion at a banquet in the school hall. The Minister Show netted approximately $100 and was a pronounced victory for all parish-punks and especially for Father Kiehlner, since it was the first effort of this kind in the parish.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT

Parents and friends had occasion to visit the School Exhibit this past week to judge the work the pupils accomplished during the year. Each of the sixteen classrooms showed the work of the pupils individually and as a class unit. Many of these projects were outstanding and indicated exceptional talent. Much credit is due the efficient and competent Sisters and teachers for their untiring efforts, and parents freely expressed their appreciation.

Camp's Fund Campaign Featured By $500 Gift

The special campaign for funds for Camp Stella Maris, inaugurated and conducted by the boys and girls who attended Stella Maris last year, closed last Wednesday evening at the time of the annual card party. The funds raised by the children will be used exclusively for improvements and additions to Camp Stella Maris.

Highlighting the proceeds of the campaign was one gift of $500.00 from a friend of the camp. This sum will be used to build an additional cabin on the camp grounds.

As arranged at the beginning of the campaign with the camp office, awards to campers bringing in high percentage of quotas have been announced.

One week at Camp Stella Maris has been merited by George Allen, Miss Marion Houston, Miss Nancy Powers, Miss Constance Besant and Miss Mary Nayode Young. Two weeks' craft and store supplies were earned by George Held. White jersey shirts, with the camp emblem, will be awarded to Billy Cushman, George Kleehammer, George Held, Donald Doerner, David Doerner, John Yoss, Thomas Tellow, Joseph Rausch, Edward Stephany of Rochester and Stephen Bennett of Cobleskill. Girls to receive a camp shirt are Misses Esther Strolo, Mary Sullivan, Ann Smyles, Aileen Cleary, Joanne Murray, Dorothy Davis of Rochester, Marguerite Hermon of Pittsford and Mary Shelter of Caladonia.

The campaign was conducted by the former campers as a special gift to Father Joseph E. Vogt, Director of Stella Maris.
