ST. PATRICK'S (Elmira)

SODALITY ON RETREAT

The retreat of the Sodality of Our Lady of St. Patrick's Parish was held Tuesday and Wednesday under the direction of the Rev. William Cannon of Addison.

Sodalists attended Mass at 7 o'clock which was followed each morning by a talk by Father Cannon. Evening services were held at 7:30.

Solemn Reception of new members and installation of officers was held Wednesday evening.

A social hour was held in the Assembly hall of the school on Wednesday evening after the church services in honor of the new members and new officers. The program was presented by the Junior Sodalists under the direction of Miss Lois Basler.

The entertainment was opened with the singing of the Catholic Action song of the Sodality, "For Christ, the King," and the Junior Sodality Song by the Junior Glee Club. Miss Eleanor Maloney of St. Mary's Sodality was heard in a monolog.

The Sodality girls also presented a Fashion show in three scenes: first, girls at a picnic wearing sports clothes; second, an afternoon at the home of one of the girls entertaining her friends at a signature tea; and third, an evening scene with a group of girls waiting for their escorts to a dance.

Between the acts Miss Eleanor O'Hanlon played several piano selections and the glee club sang "Mother Beloved," composed by the Rev. Daniel A. Leek, R.I. The Rev. Francis J. Pagan, sodality mediator, spoke briefly. The program closed with the Glee Club singing "Good Night, Blessed Mother."

Miss Patricia Long was soloist.

The sodalists in charge of the program consisted of the Misses Patricia Long, Eleanor O'Hanlon, Mary Lou Murphy, Jean Nolan, Cecilia Hollman, Peggy Spisan, Mary Shepari and Kathleen Milliken.
