

Getting On In The World

REMEMBER TO FORGET

A good memory is a blessing, but if it is too good, it is a curse. There are things one ought to remember and other things one would do well to forget.

Train your mind, therefore, to forget gossip, slander, unkindness, dirty looks and the hurts that sting and linger. Forget the seeming carelessness of people you care about or who care about you. Forget the invitation that didn't come. Forget the row you had with him or her or them. Forget the fishy cooked up something you were going to tell so-and-so—just wait'll I see 'em."

Don't allow your mind to become a chamber of horrors; let the wreckage of a year or more, the distasteful carelessness of others clutter it up with mental junk.

Train your memory to cling to what is good, pleasant, and worthwhile in the past. Train your forgettery to cut away from things which can only make a mess of the future.

Learn to forget what should be forgotten.

Work to forget what is hard and difficult to forget. It will take concentration, and to most of us, concentration is the deadliest kind of hard work, and frequently the only kind that pays inevitable dividends.

MARCH OF DIMES

New York.—Officially launched on Apr. 16 at the College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, N. J., the "March of Dimes" to clothe Catholic service men in the Scapular has been taken up by Catholic schools throughout the country, it is reported here.

Society for Propagation of the Faith

The REV. JOHN S. RANDALL, Director

50 Chestnut St. Home—Foreign Catholic Missions Stone 4913

The missions are today struggling to bring spiritual health and unity to a world laid waste by violence. Never before have they needed spiritual as well as material assistance as they do at present. This then is the special privilege of those who are sick and suffering—to offer their pain to Our Lord and to pray for the spread of His Church. Christ Himself has called them to this, has marked them with infinity and pain, so that each of them may say, as did that devoted missionary, St. Paul, "I rejoice now in the sufferings I bear for your sake; and what is lacking to the sufferings of Christ I fill up in my flesh for His Body, which is the Church."

Remember the day Pentecost Sunday, May 24 Mission Sunday of the Sick

New York, U.S.A. According to the latest information reported by our State Department, one Maryknoll priest, the Rev. Patrick Byrne, and three Maryknoll Sisters still enjoy comparative freedom in Japan. Eleven Maryknoll priests have been interned. The three per a day allotted by the Japanese government for their maintenance is not sufficient. Maryknoll is attempting to supplement this amount.

Philippine Islands: The Rev. Pacific Ortiz, S. J., who has accompanied His Excellency, Manuel Quizon, President of the Philippines, to the United States as his private Chaplain, reports that all American Jesuits in Luzon are safe.

The Rev. Thomas Shanahan, S. J., now a Chaplain with the American Forces in Australia, reports that Father Joseph Lucas was hard at work and in good health when last seen in the middle of April.

Lieut. John D. Bulkeley, U.S.N., torpedo boat hero of the Philippines, upon his return to this country paid glowing tribute to Father Andrew Cervini, S. J., "Father Cervini did a marvelous job with the men of my crew. He administered first aid to the injured. He supplied us with food and he made arrangements for the men who were exhausted to get out of the cramped quarters of the boat and have a more comfortable place to sleep. He made his church into a hospital, not only for my men but for all wounded soldiers and sailors, American and Filipino alike."

Blesses Selectees

Chicago.—The Rev. P. J. Malloy, pastor of Annunciation Church and a chaplain in the first World War, blessed 73 selectees as they left the headquarters of Draft Board 124, which is located near the church.

Holy Redeemer Parish

COMBINATION PARTY

Wednesday, June 3 is the answer to the oft-repeated question as to the time of the next combination party, and the committee are planning a bigger and better party than any of the three successful ones already run.

It was just a year ago that this successful series was started, wherein the facilities of both the auditorium and the meeting rooms of the parish hall are taken over for card players and special games.

Committees for the coming affair are being formed and will be announced later.

FORM THEATER GROUP

Something sorely needed in the parish in recent years has been an organization devoted to the care and upkeep of the parish theatrical equipment. This past theatre season has seen develop a group whose interests in dramatics and in the Parish are such as to warrant the formation of a group that will be devoted to these interests.

There will be an organization meeting of this group on Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The members will be known as the Holy Redeemer Theater Guild. At this time there will be proposed for acceptance a constitution which will make clear the aim and endeavor of the group, the membership qualifications, and the scope of the group's activities.

There are few parishes anywhere that have the stage equipment, not to mention the theatrical traditions, that is to be found in Holy Redeemer. To utilize these to the fullest extent, to present a yearly program of worthwhile features and good fun, will be the endeavor of this group, which will be open to all beyond high school age—subject to approval and acceptance.

H. R. A. A. HOLDS BANQUET

Prowess of the Holy Redeemer Athletic Association in basketball and bowling as well as the Club's continued spirit of good fellowship and sportsmanship providing beneficial influence for its members, were all emphasized at the annual banquet, Wednesday evening, May 13, in Holy Redeemer parish hall.

The Rev. F. William Stauder, pastor, was presented with a check of $500 for the church in the name of the Holy Redeemer Athletic Association by John W. Mattie, toastmaster. Father Stauder declared this year's administration of the club by President Ed Walk to be the "finest" in the club's existence. He congratulated the basketball and bowling teams for excellent showings and commended the club members for their cooperation with the parish and department in the club rooms.

Congratulatory messages were voiced by the Rev. William W. Helzel, founder of the H.R.A.A.; the Rev. Albert J. Geiger, now pastor at King Ferry and former assistant at Holy Redeemer Church; the Rev. William J. Schifferli and Rev. Walter Carron, present assistants. The value of basketball as a developer of coordination, and physical well being was stressed by Lyle "Spike" Garnish, assistant basketball coach of the University of Rochester. Coach Garnish awarded golden basketball emblems to members of the Holy Redeemer Team, runners-up in a county-wide tournament.

Presented awards were: Coach Don Bruce, Capt. Jimmy Lee, Alex Zaen, Bernie McAllister, Walter Trybulski, Pat Ruff, Pete Malzies, Dick Brauch, Roger Cushing, Frank Reitas, Vincent Ingutti, Ed Walk, Dick Staub, Lin Mattie. A roll call of H.R.A.A. boys now in the armed services showed: William Burbott, Lawrence Carroll, Arthur Englert, George Holshak, Frank Kasak, Arthur Keller, George Kermis, James J. Mabey, Edward Marks, Edward McVinnie, William Sanger, Gerard Sobel, William Sweeney and Clarence Teblozky.

Arnold Stroh was presented as the new president for the coming year. Other officers are: Vice President George Schield; Treasurer, Joseph Stoeklein; Membership Secretary, John A. Walk; Recording Secretary, Howard Dietrich; Financial Secretary, Raymond Warth; Board of Directors, Jerry Weichbrock, Rudolph Fisher, Joseph Mueller, Edward O'Neill, Richard Staub and John Kasapp. In appreciation of his work, retiring president Ed Walk was presented with a handsome gold ring from the club by Toastmaster Mattie.
