SEW FOR SOLDIERS

AUBURN—One might visit the Polish Home Monday or Tuesday evening and see the busy girls and women sewing, knitting, pressing and packing dresses and sweaters for Poland, for all countries for their needy and for American boys.

Another committee of patriotic Polish women will continue to assemble, sort and pack quantities of old clothes collected for the freezing Polish exiles in Russia.

The Polish Relief Fund holds its meeting every Tuesday at the Polish Home. Present at the meeting are representatives of every sodality, society, club or organization of the Poles of Auburn which comprise one of Auburn's finest groups of workers for war relief.
