Pasquale Makes Shoes To Order

"All our shoes are made by us at our factory, 313 North Union St., Rochester, by expert craftsmen," announced A. Di Pasquale Shoe Co., which also conducts a branch at 1491 Dewey Ave., corner of Ridgeway.

Shoes made to order for deformed or crippled feet is a specialty with this company. The proprietors state:

"If you are suffering with your feet and can't find any shoes to fit or give you comfort so, us, for your next pair. If we can't fit you from our large stock - we will measure your feet and make you a pair that will give you comfort." In the matter of shoes for boys and girls, it is pointed out that most children are born with healthy normal feet but they must wear correct shoes if their feet are to stay that way. Di Pasquale-Flex are just the shoes for growing boys and girls. The shoes are pliable, heels are broad, giving proper balance. The arch is flexible, yet affords sure support. This shoe is designed for one purpose, to keep healthy feet healthy.

The A. Di Pasquale Shoe Co. suggests a visit to the factory and examine before buying.

Immaculate Conception

FORTY HOURS CONDUCTED

By MARGUERITE BERNARD The Devotion of the Forty Hours opened at the Immaculate Conception Church on Sunday, May 10, with a Solemn High Mass and a procession of the school children. At the services on Sunday evening, the Rev. Edward Tolster, a graduate of the Immaculate, spoke to the congregation, and on Monday evening, Rev. John Malloy, assistant pastor of Corpus Christi, spoke. On Tuesday evening the solemn closing took place with Novena prayers to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal and the Litany of the Saints. A solemn procession of the school children, visiting clergy, Monsignor and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament concluded the services.

annual Communion Breakfast held on May 3. After receiving Holy Communion together at the 9 o'clock Mass, the women were breakfast in the school hall. The women were arranged with white aprons and daffodils and the breakfast was served by men of the Holy Name Society and Boy Scouts. Committee. Mrs. Frank Schreiber was chairman of the affair. Miss Blanche Jennings Thompson was guest speaker and was very entertaining with her accounts of letters she has received from former pupils who are now in the armed service of our country. Rev. Donald Murphy, Moderator of the Guild, announced that sterling silver medals on chains will be given to the boys in service and this project will be financed by the Rosary Guild, who will hold a sale throughout the parish selling these medals. Monsignor Cameron congratulated the women on their spirit and cooperation and commended them for the success of their Communion Breakfast.

Ten weeks of First Aid work having been completed, those who have qualified will go on to a more advanced course under the direction of Francis Swift. This course began Monday evening at 7:30 in the school and will last for five weeks.

On Mother's Day, following their yearly custom, the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 13 and Cub Scouts of Pack No. 13, received Holy Communion with their mothers at the 9 o'clock Mass. Each mother received a rose from her son to be worn during the day. Breakfast was served by men of the scout committee.

Over 185 members of the Rosary Guild were present at the second
