CHARLES A. TUCKER

Religious Gift Studio Gives Timely Tips On Ordination Gifts

Eight years of experience in serving the Reverend Clergy enable Mr. Tucker to advise you wisely in your choice of an Ordination Gift. Tucker's Religious Gift Studio at 74 East Avenue, opposite Chestnut St., is amply stocked with fresh, new, clean merchandise displayed in a modern, well-lighted Studio.

Gifts from Relatives

The immediate family or close relatives of the newly ordained take pleasure in supplying those intimate accessories of his priestly life, such as pyxos, oil-stocks, holy-water sprinklers, albs and surplices. All metal articles in gold or silver may be suitably engraved.

Guide for Friends

The new priest's library is one of his dearest treasures. Selection of worth-while books is simple, when proper guidance is given by a man skilled in the taste of piously reading. Mr. Tucker conducts the Book-Store at St. Bernard's Seminary and knows their needs intimately.

Furnishing His Study

The priest's study is his home. Here he prepares himself daily for his priestly tasks. You can help make it a holy sanctum, and keep your remembrance gift ever before him. Select sacred pictures, crucifixes, statues, book-ends, plaques, etc., for his study.

Selecting His Own Gift

If you just cannot make up your mind, or fear your gift will be duplicated, present him with a Merchandise Gift Certificate. These are made out for any amount you wish to spend. Particularly useful when giving black shirts, wireties, cassocks, etc., which require knowledge of sizes.

Out-of-Town Orders

Our out-of-town Service Department is at your disposal. We will gladly select the article you wish, wrap it as a gift, attach a fitting card with your name, and see that your gift is delivered in time. Or we will send you one of our Gift Certificates properly made out to the amount you wish to spend.—Adv.
