DEPLORES DESTRUCTION OF MALTA CHURCHES

LONDON. - Maritalo Pajani, granted suffering Malta in a message which General Sikorski sent to the Governor of the beleaguered island when news came that Britain's most Catholic soldier had been awarded the George Cross for his heroic fortitude.

General Sikorski wrote: "The ruins of Valletta and Maltese churches, just as the ruins of Poland bear testimony to the love and freedom felt equally by Maltese and Poles. Our Christian Maltese will be victorious over the pagan forces. I congratulate you on the superb stand of all forces defending this important outpost of the Christian World."
