By MARY E. CAUFIELD
The closing of the May Devotions was held Wednesday evening at 7:45 in St. Monica's Church. Miss Peggy Burns, Sodality Prefect, was May Queen, and after relinquishing her crown to the Blessed Mother, the entire Sodality participated in the reception of the candidates and the Act of Consecration. Members of the Central Councils of both the Junior and Senior groups formed the May Queen's court, and children of the grammar school were the "angels" that led the procession.

GROUPS PLEASE IN CONCERT AT ST. STANISLAUS HALL

Opening with a stirring rendition of the "Star-Spangled Banner" sung in English, the Rochester Echo Singing Society and St. Cecilia Choir were heard in a well-balanced program on Saturday evening in St. Stanislaus auditorium, Norton St.

The two singing groups, the Rochester Echo choir, comprising male voices, and the St. Cecilia Choir, composed of young women of St. Stanislaus parish, were directed by John Bogacki, director of St. Stanislaus choir and church organist. Accompanist was Matt Pierce of the WHEC staff.

Interspersing numbers in the Polish language and in English, the choirs were heard individually and collectively. Roman Kuciewicz was applauded in tenor solos, scoring especially with R. Ball's "In the Garden of My Heart." Wykonna Jadwiga Nowalska was heard in an incidental solo with the women's choir.

The concert was given for the Polish Relief Fund and a talk on the fund was given by the Rev. Joseph A. Blaszczak, pastor.

Gugel, journeyed to Camp Warren Cutler last weekend. In spite of the not-too-pleasant weather, the boys managed to spend a very profitable and entertaining two days.

MT. CARMEL UNIT MEMBERSHIP PARTY

The Knights of St. John, of Commandery 308, and the Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 235, both of Mt. Carmel Church, held a joint Membership Drive party in the school auditorium on Saturday evening, May 23. The party was more successful than even the most optimistic predictions of the committee. Prospective member guests almost immediately got into the swing of things and had a hilarious time. Before leaving, many expressed a desire to attend more of these social functions.

As usual, the commandery comedy team were on hand to put on their act. The "Queen of May" was chosen — it turned out to be none other than Don Santoli, in a lovely pink gown. Her escort with the "handle bar" mustache was Joe Volpe.

Members responsible for the success of this party were: Refreshments, Miss Jean R. Giamberdino, Mrs. Mary DiMarco, Lavinia Amico, Thomas Presutti, Music, Sam DiMaria, Al DiMarco. Arrangements, Misses Mary J. Castaleno, Angeline Spano, Ann Francati, Louise Palumbo. Others who assisted to complete the plans for this party were: Lewis Migliore, Victor Palumbo, Frank D'Amico and Miss Lillian Palumbo.

MEMORIAL MASS DRAWS LEGIONNAIRES

Members of the American Legion, of the Flower City Post, attended the annual Memorial Mass, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, on Sunday, May 24. The Knights of St. John, of Commandery 308, escorted the Legionnaires in a parade to the church. Rev. Charles J. Axel, pastor of Mt. Carmel parish delivered the sermon. He pointed out that the basic cause of all wars has been the lack of the proper respect for God, and the laws of His church.
