From War To War

From missionary work in war-torn China to a chaplaincy in the United States Navy is the lot of Rev. Frederic F. Gehring (above), Vincentian priest of Brooklyn, who recently returned from the bombed cities of the Orient. Father Gehring is attending the Chaplains' School at Norfolk, Va., previous to his assignment to active duty. (N.C.W.C.)

Baccalaureate Opens Nazareth Commencement

Baccalaureate services at the Nazareth Convent Chapel on Sunday, June 7 will open the formal observance of commencement week for Nazareth College, climaxing on Friday, June 12 when His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney will confer the degrees and the commencement address will be given by the Hon. Michael F. Walsh, Secretary of New York State.

The baccalaureate sermon at the Pontifical High Mass to be celebrated Sunday at 10 a. m. by Bishop Kearney will be delivered by the Rev. John E. Daley, Ph.D., instructor at the Most Holy Rosary High School, Syracuse.

Father Daley is a noted lecturer and has been heard often in radio broadcasts. He received his Master's Degree at Niagara University in 1930 and his doctor of Philosophy degree in 1936. He attended the University of Paris in 1932 where he received honors in French literature.

Book Club Selects 'Faith the Root'

NEW YORK.—"Faith the Root," by Barbara Frances Fleury, has been selected for June by the Catholic Book Club. It is published by E. P. Dutton and Company. Francis X. Connolly, reviewing "Faith the Root" in the Book Club's Newsletter, points out that the novel concerns a Father Germain, an old French priest who ministered throughout his priestly life to a remote parish in Algouquin, Mich. Mr. Connolly declares that the novel is chiefly concerned with "the compensation of Father Germain's personality with that of Algouquin."
