Groups Visit Grave of World War I Chaplain

CORNING—Following the memorial services at the Fox Theater and Hope Cemetery on Decoration Day a group of members which included representatives of Court St. Joseph 130, Catholic Daughters of America, the St. Patrick's Cadets and the Corning Free Academy band went on to St. Mary's Cemetery. At the grave of the Rev. William Cassidy, who was a chaplain during the World War I, the band played the National Anthem and the Rev. Thomas C. Kane, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church who had also pronounced the benediction at the services at the theater, offered a prayer. Taps was played by the trumpeter of the band.

The St. Patrick's Cadets then visited the grave of their late director, Frank Hoffman, where they held a brief memorial ceremony.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding; no talent no self-denial, no brains, no character are required to set up in the grumbling business.
