

Lauds Daily

Epiphany.—The Most Rev. Francis Cardinal Terzo, Bishop of Antioquia, has addressed to the Director of St. Francis, Catholic daily of Medellin, a letter congratulating him upon his labor in behalf of the Catholic Press and encouraging him to keep up the good work.

If your skin be as scarlet, they shall be made as white as snow; and if they be red as crimson, they shall be white as wool.—Isaiah.

Dr. Cowen Marks Fortieth Anniversary In Priesthood

By Maryrose Barron

AUBURN—Sunday, June 14 will mark the Fortieth Anniversary of the ordination to the Holy Priesthood of the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen, pastor of St. Mary's Church.

The day will commemorate for him forty years of thrilling experience, of monotonous details, forty years of accomplishments and zealous labor on behalf of seminarians of the Diocese of Rochester and of the parishioners of St. Mary's Church, Auburn.

In Doctor Cowen's class of 1902 at St. Bernard's Seminary marking also their fortieth anniversaries are the Rev. Louis W. Edelman, Pittsford; the Rev. Bernard J. Gaffell, East Rochester; the Rev. Joseph H. Gaffell, Nazareth College chaplain; and the Rev. Michael J. Krige, Brockport.

It is a rare thing indeed, to have a priest return as pastor to the church where he was baptized, received his first Holy Communion and sang his first Mass. High Mass, Dr. Cowen was born in Auburn, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Cowen. He was graduated from St. Mary's School and then entered St. Bernard's Seminary. In each of those schools he was distinguished for his brilliancy and was chosen by the faculty of St. Bernard's to try for the degree of doctor of theology which he received before the age of twenty-eight.

For nearly thirty years he was a member of the faculty of St. Bernard's Seminary where he was Professor of Fundamental Dogmatic Theology, Dogmatic Theology, English Literature and Ethics. There is scarcely a priest in the Diocese of Rochester who is not acquainted with Dr. Cowen for the majority of them recall him as their former professor. The four priests of the diocese, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor William F. Bergan, Rev. Henry Doerbecker, Rev. George Kalb, Rev. Francis Luddy, who this week celebrate the Silver Jubilee of their ordination to the priesthood were once students of his and Monsignor Bergan, like Dr. Cowen, is a native of Auburn, a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School and the Auburn High School. Dr. Cowen is also a past chaplain of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus and is highly esteemed by the Rochester Knights with whom he came in contact.

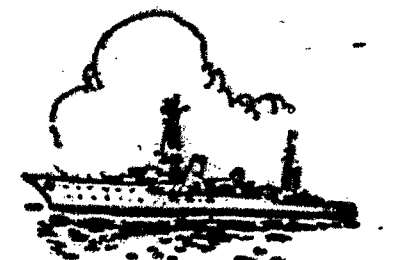

TEN YEARS AS PASTOR It is just ten years ago that Dr. Cowen was appointed pastor of St. Mary's and during those years he has labored diligently for his parishioners and given of his time and effort on behalf of all civic movements in the city of Auburn. He has never failed to respond to any cause sponsored by his parishioners, has fought for and gained recognition for Catholicism in Auburn, has lent the prestige of his name to all causes for humanity and has been actively engaged in promoting parochial and civic affairs in Auburn during the past decade of his priesthood.

Next Sunday, the Fortieth Anniversary of his ordination, will be just like any other day to Dr. Cowen. The only change in his Sunday program will be that he will celebrate the children's Mass at 8:30 for the children of St. Mary's School are receiving Holy Communion at that Mass for his intention.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Navy Cruisers are built in two classes, light and heavy. The latter displacing about 10,000 tons. Our navy has about an equal number of light and heavy Cruisers, the 10,000 ton Cruiser costing approximately $30,000,000. Many Cruisers are under construction and many more are needed.

To pay for these speedy and powerful ships with their heavy guns and armament we must buy War Bonds. Citizens of a large town or a given community, working in unity, could buy one of these ships for the Navy if they put at least ten percent of their income in War Bonds every pay day.

536 Converts

Brooklyn.—The fifth anniversary of the Brooklyn Diocesan Apostolate for the Instruction of Non-Catholics, marked by the Confirmation of 536 adults, brought to a total of more than 3,200 the number of conversions that have been made by this Apostolate since its inauguration.

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

67 TO BE GRADUATED

Graduation 1942 — With their eight year grade work completed successfully thirty-six boys and thirty-one girls will be graduated from our parish school on next Thursday evening, June 18. After a short graduation program, which will take place in Corpus Christi Hall at 8:00 P. M., the graduates will receive their diplomas, as marks of a successful conclusion of their work. The people of our parish, and in particular the parents and families of the graduates, are invited to attend these graduation exercises in our hall. Your presence there will be a just tribute to these boys and girls, who have attained the goal of graduation only after eight years of hard work and study. We congratulate our graduates. May God bless them and grant that their years of preparation in Corpus Christi School may lead to great and fine success in their years to come.

The Graduating Class will attend the 8:00 Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body on next Thursday, June 18.

Blanket Club Begins—We have had so many requests for a Co-operative Blanket Club in our parish that we are distributing applications to our people on this Sunday. Extra applications may be had by calling at the Rectory or by mail. All applications must be signed and handed in by Wednesday, June 24. The club will begin on Sunday, June 28, and will continue for a period of twenty-two weeks, ending before the holiday season. Dues will be 30c weekly. Full information may be found in this Sunday's Bulletin or by calling at the Rectory. We urge the members of our parish to help their parish church and at the same time to help themselves by joining this blanket club and by urging their relatives and friends to join.

Miraculous Medal Novena — The stress of war and the need of prayer and sacrifice should urge our people to attend the weekly Novena services in honor of our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. These services, which are held each Monday evening at 8:00, are attracting more and more lovers of our Blessed Lady. We hope that our people will cultivate the Monday evening habit of praying at these Novena services to our Blessed Lady.

Tuesday Nite Parish Parties — Bowing to the desires of those attending our Tuesday Nite Parish Parties we will continue these weekly game parties through the month of June, with a special program of games and entertainment on the final Tuesday evening, June 30. We invite you all to come around on any and all of these Tuesday evenings at 8:30 to join the fun in our cool parish hall.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament—To mark the beginning of War Week with a plea for prayer and greater love of God, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in accordance with our Most Reverend Bishop's instructions, in our church on this Sunday afternoon from the end of the 12:15 Mass until the close of the afternoon services.
