

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

By HELEN MACCHIA

Troop 212 of Holy Family Church is celebrating its fifth anniversary, June 16, as a member of the Boy Scouts of America. Opening the program, will be the investiture in the Church at 7:30 P. M. of twelve Tenderfoot Scouts into the troop. Following this, the Senior Scouts will give a concert in the auditorium of the War Service Safety Monitor Drill under the leadership of Leo O'Leary, Assistant Scout Master.

Various awards will be presented to the Scouts, ranging from Tenderfoot to Life, who have advanced to these ranks.

The Troop has been, since its organization, under the chairmanship of Mr. Edward Haubner. There are several charter members of the Committee still active in the organization.

Since the Troop was founded, there have been three Scouts advanced to the high award of Eagle Scout, twelve to Life rank and several more to Star rank. The average of the Troop for the past five years has been forty-eight active Scouts.

The Troop is now under the guidance of Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, Chaplain; Norman Huether, Scoutmaster; Francis St. John and James Ireno, Assistant Scoutmasters.

The arrangements for the Court of Honor are under the supervision of Mr. Eugene Boor, the head of the Advancement Committee.

There will be several speakers among the guests of the evening. Some of the guests will be George Skivington, attorney; Daniel Earle, Assistant Scout Executive; William Hill, District Commissioner.

The Troop extends a cordial invitation to the parents and friends of all the Scouts to attend this Court of Honor.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE ON TOP
Holy Family won its fourth straight Catholic Softball League game by defeating the Niagara team 10 to 0, behind the 3-hit pitching of Bud Nealon. Joe Bauer-schmitt hit a home-run, double and triple to feature at bat.

Thus, the Holy Family team, leading undefeated in the Softball League, will meet the strong St. Francis Xavier Team at the Y. & E. field Jay Street, on Sunday, June 14, at 11 A. M.

St. Francis has captured the Catholic League Championship for the last two years, therefore, a hard game is looked for by Mgr. Joe St. John. The pitcher will be chosen from a group including the veteran Joe Mason, Fran Keely and Bud Nealon — all poised to pitch this important game. The catcher will be either "Bumpy" Matelli or Walt Miller.

The manager of the Holy Family Team has chosen the following players to represent the Parish League in the Catholic League: Walt Miller, John Matelli, Francis Keely, Bud Nealon, Earl Gerstang, Joe Mason, Joe Benschmitt, Howard Foland, Charles Cotter, Art Guenther, Larry Schamberck, Richard Gorocaski, Edward Legler, Jerry Foss, Herb Schneider, Michael Bilous, Phillip Nee and Leonard Teager.

SCOUT TROOP No. 104
The Parish's Old Scout Troop No. 104 will mark their final meeting of this season by having a sausage roast which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Klein-knecht, 183 Malby St., on Tuesday, June 16, at 8:30 P. M. This Troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Maryann Mandara and Miss Helen Macchia, has the following

Carmel Unit Reaches 1000 Member Mark

Carmel Unit 209 E.M., Western New York, of The Scapular Militia, reached its 1000 membership Memorial Day, May 30, and booked during the month of May 100 members of which 100 were sustaining members to whom they extend grateful appreciation.

On July 16, Carmel Unit will be one year old and its president, Mary G. Miller, is asking each member to try and interest one person in becoming a member, sustaining or active. The Militia now numbers almost 10,000 members in the U. S. A., American Island possessions and Canada.

The National Shrine of the Militia is located in New York City and each Saturday a Votive Mass in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular is offered for the intentions of all those whose names are under that altar. The growth of the Militia proved little short of miraculous. The Lay Director, John M. Haffert, author of Mary In Her Scapular Promise, moved by the value of the Scapular wondered what he might do further to bring the Scapular to those who do not enjoy the security of the Scapular Devotion and he suggests the Militia offers an opportunity to satisfy this desire.

On Apr. 15 a Perpetual Novena in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular was inaugurated at the National Shrine in New York City where services are held weekly on Wednesdays.

Here in Western New York ten posts have been established. They are doing splendid work in honor of Our Lady of Carmel and for the men in the Armed Forces. The Leaders of these posts are to be congratulated on their cooperation and success. Orders booked to date number 65,000 scapulars.

Posts in this diocese are: St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece; Mrs. John A. Metzer; Holy Apostles, Rochester; Mrs. Frank Gifford. The other eight posts are in the Buffalo diocese.

Interested persons are asked to contact Carmel Unit 209 E.M., 25 Best St., Buffalo, by letter or phone, Grant 2468, Buffalo.
