

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

By HELEN MACCHIA

Troop 212 of Holy Family Church is celebrating its fifth anniversary, June 16, as a member of the Boy Scouts of America.

The Troop has been, since its organization, under the chairmanship of Mr. Edward Haubner.

Since the Troop was founded, there have been three Scouts advanced to the high award of Eagle Scout, twelve to Life rank and several more to Star rank.

The Troop is now under the guidance of Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, Chaplain; Norman Huether, Scoutmaster; Francis St. John and James Ireno, Assistant Scoutmasters.

The arrangements for the Court of Honor are under the supervision of Mr. Eugene Boor, the head of the Advancement Committee.

There will be several speakers among the guests of the evening. Some of the guests will be George Skivington, attorney; Daniel Earle, Assistant Scout Executive; William Hill, District Commissioner.

The Troop extends a cordial invitation to the parents and friends of all the Scouts to attend this Court of Honor.

The National Shrine of the Militia is located in New York City and each Saturday a Votive Mass in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular is offered for the intentions of all those whose names are under that altar.

On July 16, Carmel Unit will be one year old and its president, Mary G. Miller, is asking each member to try and interest one person in becoming a member, sustaining or active.

St. Francis has captured the Catholic League Championship for the last two years, therefore, a hard game is looked for by Mgr. Joe St. John. The pitcher will be chosen from a group including the members of the Cincinnati: Mrs. George Collins, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kleinknecht and Mrs. Charles Gorman. The guest of honor at this meeting will be Father Wahl.

Members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday, June 14. At the special committee meeting held on Wednesday evening of this week, final arrangements were made for the Parish Picnic.

Final arrangements have been completed by the Holy Family Parish picnic committee for its annual picnic to be held next Sunday, June 14, at South Park, near William Heisel, pastor of Holy Family, and Clayton Cody, the picnic chairman, propose the "biggest and grandest picnic of all times."

The picnicers are invited to come and stay for the rest of the day. A fine program of sports and activities for both young and old has been planned for the whole day. Many valuable prizes have been obtained and will be awarded to the winners of the various contests.

Clayton Cody will be assisted by the following men, the best named of each group being the chairman of that respective group: Tirketa, William Schwab, John Hoffman, Joseph Lehner and Norbert Vay; Hota, Frank Huss, Bob Blum, Nick and Klenck, Jack Sauer, Herb also Huss and Joe Sauer, Harry Ross, Frank and Harry Hottel, Herb Dvorich and John Gaulty; Van Andrew, Walter St. John, E. Kapp, George Platter, Harry Hottel, George Kadel, John Friedman, Jay Cross, Charles Korman, Carl Wagon, Edward Dambrosio, Charles E. Miller and John Ross; Cayley, George Paul, Charles McCabe, Al Gauer and Edward Vay; Sports, George Bartholomew, Joseph St. John, Joseph Hottel, Charles Korman, Jim Miller, Joe Sauer and Joseph Weidmann; Public Address, Announcer, Frank Dambrosio; Sr. The Treasurer, Elmer Wagon, assisted by Joseph Vay.

All members of the parish and their friends are invited and urged to attend this picnic.

Carmel Unit Reaches 1000 Member Mark

Carmel Unit 209 E.M. Western New York, of the Scapular Militia, reached its 1,000 membership Memorial Day, May 30, and booked during the month of May 100 members of which 100 were sustaining members to whom they extend grateful appreciation.

On July 16, Carmel Unit will be one year old and its president, Mary G. Miller, is asking each member to try and interest one person in becoming a member, sustaining or active. The Militia now numbers almost 10,000 members in the U. S. A., American Island possessions and Canada.

The National Shrine of the Militia is located in New York City and each Saturday a Votive Mass in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular is offered for the intentions of all those whose names are under that altar. The growth of the Militia proved little short of miraculous. The Lay Director, John M. Haffert, author of Mary In Her Scapular Promise, moved by the value of the Scapular wondered what he might do further to bring the Scapular to those who do not enjoy the security of the Scapular Devotion and he suggests the Militia offers an opportunity to satisfy this desire.

On Apr. 15 a Perpetual Novena in honor of Our Lady of the Scapular was inaugurated at the National Shrine in New York City where services are held weekly on Wednesdays.

Here in Western New York ten posts have been established. They are doing splendid work in honor of Our Lady of Carmel and for the men in the Armed Forces. The Leaders of these posts are to be congratulated on their cooperation and success. Orders booked to date number 65,000 scapulars.

Posts in this diocese are: St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece; Mrs. John A. Metzer; Holy Apostles, Rochester; Mrs. Frank Gifford. The other eight posts are in the Buffalo diocese.

Interested persons are asked to contact Carmel Unit 209 E.M., 25 Best St., Buffalo, by letter or phone, Grant 2468, Buffalo.

Clara Seeh Rites Held At Mt. Morris

Funeral services and Mass were conducted at St. Patrick's Church, Mt. Morris, Friday morning, June 5, at 9 o'clock, for Miss Clara Seeh, 61, by the Rev. Wm. A. Rafferty, pastor. Miss Seeh died Monday, June 1, in Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, where she had been a patient for 4 days.

She was born in Mt. Morris, daughter of the late John Seeh and Mary Poppon, and has always resided in this community, being a member of St. Patrick's parish. Surviving is one sister, Miss Agnes Seeh, at home.

Burial was in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

Guild Plans Program For New Villa Home

Members of St. Aloysius Guild hold their meeting on Thursday, June 18, at 2 o'clock in the meeting rooms of St. Mary's Boys Home, West Main St. All members are urged to attend this meeting so that plans can be discussed concerning St. Joseph's Villa, which opens very shortly.

Third Order Of St. Francis

The June meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis will be held at St. Patrick's Church at 3.30 o'clock on Sunday, June 28. Father Bartholomew O'Brien, Spiritual Director, will preside.

There will be no meetings of the Third Order in July or August, but it is suggested that tertiaries spend some time daily in spiritual reading and in the enjoyment of light summer reading with a Catholic background.

The following list contains books of the latter type, all of which may be obtained at the Catholic Evidence Library in the Columbus Civic Centre at 50 Chestnut St. Library hours are from 4 to 6 and from 7 to 9 o'clock, Monday through Friday. If there is any change of hours during the summer, it will be announced in the CATHOLIC COURIER.
