BOY SCOUTS CAMPOREE

Holy Family Boy Scout Troop spent the week end at the Annual Council Camporee held at Standart Woods. A total of 24 boys camped out and did their own cooking. Fifteen tents were used to take care of the sleeping accommodations for our troop. The Troop was under the leadership of Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Holzhauser who assisted by a committee composed of the following men from Holy Family Parish: Harry Dillon, Howard Pitcher, John McQueensy, Ray Donovan, George Cuddy and C. E. Holzhauser. The boys are now looking forward to spending a week or two at Camp Rotary Scout Council Camp on the east side of Owasco Lake. During the past season an unusual amount of interest has been shown by the boys in the Scouting movement and nearly

Prayers For Mexico In 'Difficult Hours' Said In All Churches

MEXICO CITY (NC) - Prayers for Mexico in these difficult hours were offered in the Metropolitan Cathedral, the Basilica of Our Lady Guadalupe and all other churches of the Archdiocese.

In a statement to the press, the Most Rev. Luis M. Martinez, Archbishop of Mexico, said: "At such a time, from the supernatural viewpoint, we must turn our eyes and our hearts to God because life and death, peace and war, happiness and sorrow are in His hands. And we Mexican Catholics, who live under the maternal shelter of Mary of Guadalupe, must turn to her, secure in her love and relying upon her protection."

Twenty-five new boys have joined the troop in the past few months. The following boys were present at the Camporee: Paul Cuddy, Robert Holzhauser, Dick Bergen, Jim Pitcher, Paul Luckern, Bernard Horan, Ray Cuddy, Paul McQueensy, Jim Cuddy, Dick Heffernan, Ray Donovan, Bob Paul, Peter Bergen, Tom McLaughlin, Dick Woods, Bill Lawler, Martin Dillon, Bob Davis, Frank McMahon, Paul Ringwood, Bob Donovan, Bob Sandy, Dave Hickey and Jack Vail.

FR. O'CONNELL HEARD

By MARIROSE BARRON

AUBURN Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, for five years moderator of the Lyceum Players of St. Mary's Church, returned on Thursday evening to give the principal address at the Club's Annual Banquet which was held at Springville Inn. Father O'Connell in his address stressed the need of the drama and urged the members to keep the drama alive in Auburn and not let it die at the legitimate stage is slowly dying because it has lost sight of the real purpose of the drama. For the first objective of the drama is to educate and the second to amuse.

Father O'Connell always was one of the most enthusiastic members of the Dramatic Club and while in Auburn was noted for his presentation of famous plays.

Following the banquet a short business meeting was conducted by Gus Pine, the retiring president. The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Helen Stapleton; vice president, Marjorie Burns; secretary, Patricia Robinson; treasurer, LaBelle Armstrong.

Adrian Duns was general chairman of the Banquet and Miss Helen Stapleton was toastmistress. Harold Shure of the WYR staff entered with a humorous monologue and a dramatic presentation of Rudyard Kipling's "Gunga Din." Miss Anne Sitomons rendered several vocal selections accompanied by Gerald Conroy. A radio skit entitled "The Open Door" was presented by Paul Thompson with the following taking part: Barbara Burns, Harold Shure and Bill Thorp.

Brief remarks were made by Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen, pastor, and Rev. Joseph McNamara, moderator of the club.

ENTER U. S. SERVICE
Two members of the Class of 1926 of St. Mary's School and of the Class of 1929 of Auburn Academic High School have entered the service of their country. Miss Dora Mansfield, a graduate of Syracuse Memorial Hospital and a member of the unit of Johns Hopkins University, has arrived safely in Australia. Miss Mansfield is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mansfield of 17 Pleasant Street. Her classmate, Dr. Thomas D. Stapleton, reported at the Naval Station at Norfolk, Virginia this week for duty as lieutenant junior grade with the United States Naval Reserve. Dr. Stapleton is a graduate of Georgetown University and Georgetown Medical College and was intern at the Gallinger Municipal Hospital and the Georgetown University Hospital in Washington. After completing his studies he returned to Auburn and has had his office at 22 Grant Avenue. He has also been the physician at the National Youth Administration in Auburn.

GRADUATION LISTED

CATHOLIC LAWYERS ADVISE SERVICE MEN WITHOUT FEE

CHICAGO.—(INC)—Service men with legal problems are being given advice free, according to a plan made known by William H. Sexton, president of the Catholic Lawyers' Guild of Chicago. A number of cases have been handled under the new plan.

In addition the Guild members will volunteer for lecture service to supplement motion pictures at the NCCS centers. The pictures will depict the work being carried on by the Catholic Charities in behalf of underprivileged. The Rev. Edward V. Dalley, editor of The New World, is chairman of the Lawyers' Guild.

Gaelic Group Honors 3 Catholic Laymen

LOS ANGELES.—Initiating a series of awards that will be given annually to men and women who have achieved distinction for good citizenship, literary merit and the advancement of wholesome recreation, the Gaelic Association of Southern California has honored three prominent Catholics.

Statuettes of St. Patrick were presented to Joseph Scott, John Steven McGroarty and Henry Morrissey as exemplars of what Americans of Irish lineage have done in their respective fields.
