St. Francis de Sales parochial school commencement will be held on Sunday evening, June 21st, at 7:30 o'clock.

The annual Commencement of St. Stephen's parochial school will be on Friday evening, June 19th, at 7:30 o'clock. The speaker will be Rev. Joseph Sullivan of St. Francis de Sales parish.

Geneva Deaths

The funeral of James Slattery of 167 Pultney Street, who died Saturday, was held Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the funeral home of DeVaney & Company and 9 at St. Stephen's Church. The requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. William McPadden. Burial was in St. Patrick's Cemetery with the Rev. Daniel Fraher officiating.

The bearers, members of the Neater Hose Company, of which Mr. Slattery was a charter member, were Charles Hamill, John Toole, Frank Brennan, Michael Toole, William Devaney and Orville Stavros.

Daniel P. Lynch of 41 Folger Street died suddenly Saturday afternoon following a heart attack. He leaves his widow, Mary Mc-Nicholas Lynch, two sons, Thomas D. and Francis C., of Geneva; two brothers, Thomas Lynch of Waterloo and Martin of Auburn, also two grandchildren.

Mr. Lynch was a member of the Holy Name Society. He had been employed by the New York Central Railroad since 1918.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the family home and 9 at St. Francis de Sales Church. Interment was in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

thony LaCoca, C.R.E. of Rochester. Assisting was Rev. Raymond Blais of St. Stephen's parish.

A large St. Anthony banner was prominently displayed for the service. Bouquets of white lilies and white peonies were used on the altar.

Mrs. Jeanette Quartaro was chairman of the celebration with Mrs. Adeline Berna as co-chairman.

The second event on the program was the 5th anniversary dinner in connection with the Feast Day celebration. This was held on Sunday evening at Community Hall with 100 members present.

Prominent in the hall was a large shrine in honor of St. Anthony. The shrine was backed with red roses and pink and white peonies. Tall, tapered tapers in candleholders were also used.

The dinner table was attractively arranged in a color scheme of brown and gold, the Society colors.

Mrs. Quartaro welcomed the members and guests, after which Father LaCoca addressed the group.

Mrs. Adeline Berna, past president, and Mrs. Josephine Pans, president of the society, also spoke briefly.

An orchestra provided music for dancing after the dinner.

VET IS HOST AT NCCS CLUB

When men of war get together they have plenty to talk about. The subjects of discussion in this picture were the Spanish-American war experiences of "Top Sarge" John O. Meyers, Sr. (right), 51-year-old vet who is official greeter and press agent for the USO club operated by the National Catholic Community Service at Highwood, Ill. Sgt. Meyers' activities on behalf of the Highwood USO club are the basis of a transcribed radio show, "Grandpa's Day at the USO," which will be heard over 200 local radio stations throughout the nation.
