Immaculate Conception

SODALITY BANQUET

The Young Ladies' Sodality brought its season to a final close last Tuesday evening when it held its Fifth Annual Parents and Friends Banquet in the school auditorium. After the dinner, at which ninety attended, the officers were installed before a beautiful shrine of the Blessed Virgin.

The Rev. Anthony LaCocca, of the faculty of the Aquinas Institute, addressed the gathering and gave a very interesting talk on the obligations of an active Sodalist.

Mr. Robert Hemings, well-known local pianist and musician rendered several selections which were very well received. George S. Wood, moderator of the Sodality, gave a summary of the events of the past year.

IMMACULATE BALL TEAM

Last Tuesday the Immaculate Grammar School team defeated St. Anthony's 2 to 15. Al Sherman and Al Wilkins divided the pitching honors. Their team mates helped them with four home runs. This game ended a very successful season of seven victories and three losses.

CUBS HOLD OUTING

The Annual Picnic of Cub Pack 13 was held at South Park on Saturday, June 13. More than 80 Cubs and parents attended. The Pack Chaplain, Rev. Donald J. Murphy was the guest of honor at the picnic supper. Various races and games were enjoyed in the afternoon and prizes were offered for the lucky Cubs. Following the races the Cubs enjoyed a long boat ride on the river. The afternoon events were in charge of James Rogers, Pack Committee Chairman, and Howard Siebert, Cubmaster. Mrs. George Wilson, President of the Scout Mother's Auxiliary, was in charge of the Picnic Supper, assisted by Mrs. F. Bailey, Mrs. R. Steeb and all of the Den Mothers. Other guests at the supper were John Hulbert, Scoutmaster of Troop 13, and Paul Scoble, Chairman of the Scout Committee.

Center To Correct Children's Eye Defects Opened By Health Groups

Children suffering from squint or cross-eye in the City and County will now have the opportunity to benefit from instruction at the Rochester Orthoptic Center which was opened June 14 in Public School No. 31, at 208 North Goodman Street.

The Center is open to all persons in need of eye muscle training whose applications are approved by the attending physician. Instruction hours are: Monday, Wednesday and Friday—12:30 P. M. to 4:30 P. M., and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday—10:00 A. M. to 2:00 P. M. New applicants are interviewed on Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning. The Center is being conducted on an appointment basis allowing approximately one-half hour for each individual.

The organizations and institutions participating in the project include the State Department of Social Welfare—Commission for the Blind, the Eye Conservation Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Association, Medical Society of the County of Monroe, the Rochester Board of Education, the Rochester Health Bureau, the Rochester Alumni Chapter of the Delta Gamma Fraternity, the Rochester Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Club, the Rochester Guild of Prescription Opticians, the Rochester Optometric Society, the Rochester Visiting Nurse Association, the Rochester Association for the Blind, and the manufacturers of orthoptic instruments.

The Center is in charge of Dorothy Masch, orthoptic technician of the State Department of Social Welfare. Dr. Leonard W. Jones heads the committee on medical and technical service in charge of center service. Dr. Frank Barber is the attending physician. Harry E. Crowley heads the Eye Conservation Committee which is responsible for the orthoptic training service, an activity sponsored by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of which Joseph P. MacSweeney is president.

Persons desiring further information are advised to write the Center or call Monroe 1543.

C.Y.A. Day Camp Opens Tuesday

The Columbus Youth Association Day Camp Program will begin on Tuesday, June 23 and run through the summer months ending on August 29. Because of the present day conditions, the C. Y. A. is setting up a special, enlarged program for boys and girls so that they may find recreation and entertainment during their summer vacations.

Swimming, craft, games, hikes, roasts, athletics, and nature lore will be included in the program which will be conducted from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon under the guidance of very capable leaders.

"Come on, boys and girls, join the C. Y. A. Day Camp now, where there will be no rationing of fun and frolic for the entire summer," C. Y. A. leaders state.

It is a sight to rejoice the hearts of angels and men to see the noble way in which a really Christian family bears the screw that may come to it.
