ST. PATRICK'S (Corning)

FR. RAWLINSON, PASTOR, ADDRESSES GRADUATES

CORNING - John Paul Tammaro and Patricia Packard, members of the graduating class of St. Patrick's Parochial School, were awarded prizes by Trustees James E. Poland Sr., and William Deicola for having the highest averages in the class, Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the commencement exercises in the school hall.

Christian Doctrine prizes donated by the Rev. A. E. Rawlinson, pastor, were presented to John Leahy and Edward Kelly.

Following the awarding of the diploma by Father Rawlinson to the class, which was presented by the Rev. Thomas C. Kane, John Paul Tammaro gave the greetings and the class prophecy was read by Patricia Packard.

The pastor then addressed the class, congratulating them, and expressing regret for the loss of Sister Frederica, principal, and Father Kane, both of whom are being transferred. Father Rawlinson paid tribute to Sister Frederica, who, in her six years of teaching at St. Patrick's School, has never had a failure.

He reminded the students that the world is in the midst of trying times and cautioned them never to forget God for in doing so they would be disloyal to their country try as well. He told them to remember their teachings about the flag which they have received since the First Grade and he asked them to do their part for peace through prayer and by going to Masses for those in the armed service.

Father Rawlinson praised the work of Earl Breen for his work with the high school orchestra which is made up of former graduates of St. Patrick's and students of the school and which is the only orchestra of its kind in this part of the Rochester diocese. Mr. Breen also coaches the Cadets and the pastor also commended him on the results which have been achieved.

In conclusion Father Rawlinson again spoke of Father Kane's departure and remarked how greatly the assistant pastor would be missed.

A procession was formed to the Church where Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given with Mrs. Newton Lincoln at the organ.

AIR WARDENS MEET

CORNING - Air raid wardens of Zone 1, who have been gathering regularly at St. Patrick's School Hall, held two important meetings there recently, the first one on Thursday, June 18, and the second on June 21. The purpose of the meetings was to determine the number of wardens who had qualified for arm bands which are to be issued July 8, and to arrange for qualification of those who had not yet met the requirements of the War Council.

Alderman Leo McMahon is in charge of the Zone 1 wardens.

S. H. L. Banquet

The annual Sacred Heart Ladies' banquet will be held at the Church Hall Sunday, June 28, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Rose Caporiccio is chairman of the event.

Holy Name Outing

The annual Holy Name Society outing will be held Sunday, June 28, at the Sullivan Monument State Park. Mamma D'Onofrio is chairman of the annual event.

Members are requested to pair up in twos or fours so as to make transportation much easier and save on gas and rubber. The meeting place will be in front of the church at 11 a. m.

A special program has been arranged by the committees for various games and sport events.

Physical Education

Over 250 boys and girls participated in the physical education program at St. Anthony's School this past season. The major purpose of such a program at St. Anthony's School is a character-building rather than training exhibition or championship athletic teams from selected talent among both boys and girls.

The following report of activities were conducted during the past year under the direction of Allie P. Quatrano, physical director.

Gym classes for boys and girls Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays; various sport leagues for boys and girls, such as, touch football for boys, indoor hockey for girls, basketball for boys, track meet for boys and girls, field day meet, boys and girls hobby fair, Indian baseball league for boys and school play.

Father Vogt Departs

Widespread regret was felt by St. Anthony's parishioners and the boys in particular when the new appointments revealed the transfer of the Rev. Francis H. Vogt, to Holy Family Church, Rochester. Father Vogt was the mainspring of all boys' activities of the parish. He spent many hours to help the boys of our parish enjoy a good, clean life. The members of the parish will all miss Father Vogt and they wish him loads of luck and God's help.
