Honor Monsignor Bergan At Auburn Celebration

Letts and soubrette vocal numbers. The assembly singing was led by Anthony J. Caffrey and Gerald T. Conroy was accompanist. Margaret Trach Leach, graduate of the College of Speech and Dramatic Art of Syracuse University, gave dramatic readings.

Monsignor Bergan spoke briefly, thanking the guests for his Twenty-fifth Anniversary remembrance and told that Mr. and Mrs. James Conroy of Syracuse, native Auburnians, and guests at the dinner, should also have a part in this celebration, for three days after his ordination he was the officiating clergyman at their wedding which took place in St. Mary's Church. Jimmy Conroy was a well known Auburn ball player and he had played on many ball clubs with Monsignor Bergan.
