

Mark 25th Wedding Jubilee in Corning

CORNING. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cushing, 274 E. Third St., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, June 20, at their home.

Mrs. Leona Calkins and Thomas Clifford Cushing, both of Corning, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's rectory on June 20, 1920, by the Rev. A. C. Smith, then assistant pastor at St. Patrick's and the present pastor of St. Cecilia's Church, Elmira.

The couple have resided in Corning all of their married life and have three children: Mrs. Samuel Carlino of Corning, Mrs. Robert E. Hayes of Fort Bragg, N. C., and Miss Helen at home, and two grandchildren, Mary Jean and James Carlino.

Mrs. Hayes arrived from North Carolina Sunday to be at home with her parents on their anniversary. Fr. First Class Robert E. Hayes arrived to join his wife on Tuesday.

Besides a family party, open house was held by Mr. and Mrs. Cushing at their home. They received many greetings and gifts.

Mass For Uruguayan Victims of Torpedoing

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay. The Most Rev. Antonio Maria Barbieri, Archbishop of Montevideo, pontificated at the Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of those who lost their lives on the Montevideo. This vessel was the first Uruguayan victim of the submarine war in the Caribbean. The survivors of the crew, headed by Captain Rodriguez Varela, attended the Mass.

Without laughter humor would be dumb.

WAR COUNCIL'S OVERSEAS WORKERS HONORED

Climaxing a three-day round of the Overseas Division of the National Catholic War Council, a bronze plaque is unveiled in the new headquarters building of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, Washington, honoring the 153 women who served overseas with the War Council and the Knights of Columbus in the reconstruction period following World War I. Pictured are Mrs. Mary Furlong Storms, retiring president who presented the plaque, and Monsignor Michael J. Reedy, General Secretary, N. C. W. C., who accepted it. Semi photo.

English Bishop Calls For Rejection Of New Education Proposals

LONDON. There is a threatening danger that the new proposals for education in England are being based on a narrow and unrepresentative basis, says the Most Rev. Henry J. Foster, Bishop of Leeds, in a letter to the Education Committee of the House of Commons. He says that the proposals are based on the views of a few members of local education authorities who are not representative of the whole country, which are to be placed before the House.

The proposals submitted to the House are based on a narrow and unrepresentative basis, says the Most Rev. Henry J. Foster, Bishop of Leeds, in a letter to the Education Committee of the House of Commons. He says that the proposals are based on the views of a few members of local education authorities who are not representative of the whole country, which are to be placed before the House.

Bishop Foster called on the House to reject the proposals for the education of the country as a whole and to have a representative body of educationists to consider the proposals. He says that the proposals are based on the views of a few members of local education authorities who are not representative of the whole country, which are to be placed before the House.

More Navy Chaplains

New York. — An increase of 100 per cent in the number of Catholic chaplains serving naval forces since November, 1912, was announced today by the Military Ordinariate here. As compared with January, 1940, the increase is 700 per cent. The gain is due not only to increased naval personnel, but also to the more liberal policy of the government in assigning chaplains, it was explained.

Army Camp Now Has Daily Adoration

LAN THORO, Calif. — The soldiers of March Field now have daily adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

It began on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and is held every day from 12:00 to 1:00. The service, unusual in army camps, was made possible through the aid of the Catholic chaplains, Rev. John V. Wood, C.S.C., and Rev. Walter Malby, C.F. These two chaplains also have been serving Camp Hood where a real army is based, pending the arrival of other chaplains.

Military Academy Buys Faculty Residence

KANSAS CITY. — Further expansion of De La Salle Military Academy has been made possible by the purchase by Brother Joseph, F.B.C., Director, of a three-story apartment building to be converted for use as a faculty residence and chapel. A number of new classrooms can thus be established in the main building. A $100,000 gymnasium was dedicated at the academy late last year.
