A feeling of sincere regret on the part of the parishioners of Holy Family Church followed the announcement of the transfer of Father Harding from Holy Family Church to St. Bridget's Church in Rochester. During the years Father Harding has acted as assistant at Holy Family his devotion to duty and genial disposition has won for him the affection of Priests and people. The prayers and best wishes of the people of Holy Family shall accompany him in his new field of work and Holy Family people trust that his efforts shall be crowned with success. Rev.
