Chance Reunites Polish Family In Palestine After Three Years

JERUSALEM. — One more remarkable reunion has taken place in this cross-roads of the world that is Palestine.

A Polish soldier was entering his camp "somewhere in Palestine." Since he left them in Russia in 1939 he had not seen either of his two sons, and he knew nothing of their fate.

As he entered the camp he met two young boys whose familiar appearance startled him. Approached with astonishment and not an unexpected shyness for his own, he and the 13 year old boys had arrived with a group from Persia and were to meet at the camp the following day.

Everybody and everything will contribute to the National success—at as much pain.—Passaic Herald News.
