Honor Couple On 30th Wedding Anniversary

CORNING.—Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Carleton, 22 E. Second St., were the honored guests at a surprise party Sunday evening, the occasion being their 30th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton were married at St. Patrick's Church, July 9, 1912 by the Rev. Walter J. Lee, now Monsignor Lee of Geneva. The couple have lived in Corning for most of their married life, Mr. Carleton being a machinist at Corning Glass Works. Mrs. Carleton has entertained for many church activities with her readings and recitations and has been a member of St. Mary's choir for a number of years.

Corning To Send Delegation To Women's Institute

CORNING.—Mrs. Fred DeMuth, president of the Corning Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women, will head a delegation to the Women's Service Institute, sponsored by the Council, and scheduled for Friday, July 17, at Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira.

It is planned tentatively that registration will be at 9:30 A. M. followed by the general meeting at 10 A. M. The afternoon session will be from 2 until 4 o'clock.

'Gigantic Holy Hour' Planned at Chicago

CHICAGO.—The Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch, archbishop of Chicago announced plans this week for a gigantic Holy Hour to be sponsored by the Archdiocesan Union of Holy Name societies.

The Holy Hour will be held Sept. 13 at Soldier field.

Approximately 175,000 persons paid tribute to Jesus Christ in this mighty pageant of religion and patriotism last year, and an increased Chicago Holy Name membership indicates that this year's event will surpass the triumph of 1941.

More than 8,000 persons marched in procession before the Blessed Sacrament.

ANSWERING CALL FOR ARMY NURSES

Marian Douglass, senior student of the Providence Division of the Catholic University School of Nursing Education, takes the oath of allegiance as a Red Cross Army nurse, administered by Lieut. Col. Leon Gardner, U. S. A., Assistant to the Surgeon General, as Sister Olivia, O. S. B., Dean of the School looks on. This was a special feature of the program, "Nursing in Wartime," presented by Mary Hohm, Catholic Action commentator over the Mutual Broadcasting System recently. (N.C.W.C.)

Clement Murphy Again Heads Corning K. of C. Council

CORNING.—At the annual election of officers held by the Corning Council Knights of Columbus on Thursday, July 1, Clement L. Murphy was chosen grand knight for the 1942-season to succeed Robert F. Hallahan. This is the second time Mr. Murphy has been accorded this honor.

Serving with Mr. Murphy will be Mr. Hallahan as recording secretary, Albert M. Lynch, chancellor, John R. Osborn, warden; Paul Tammaro, deputy grand knight, Henry Ainsworth, reelected advocate; Paul Lovette, treasurer; Colton John Marx, outer guard; Arthur Kramer, inner guard.

The Rev. John Albert, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, was appointed chaplain, and Frank H. Suits, James F. Hallahan and Dr. Hugh T. Keenan were named to the Board of Trustees.

About 50 were in attendance at the meeting after which two of the members of the Council, Robert McIntyre and Robert Moore, who left Wednesday, July 8, for induction into the Army, were feted at a farewell party. Each was presented a check by Mr. Hallahan on behalf of the Council.

Death Roll of Week in Southern Tier

Edward Sheehe, 87, of Wellsburg and formerly of Elmira, died Saturday, July 4, 1942 at 6:30 p. m. after a brief illness. For 30 years he had been a city schools system janitor, retiring on a pension about 10 years ago. He was a communicant of SS. Peter and Paul's Church. Survivors are two sons, John B. Sheehe and George E. Sheehe, a sister, Mrs. George Keating, all of Elmira and a brother George of Corning; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Tuesday at SS. Peter and Paul's Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Lee celebrated the High Requiem Mass. Bearers: Jerry, Harry and Thomas Sheehe, Stephen Keating, Vincent McConnell and Daniel Tierney. SS. Peter and Paul's Cemetery.

John B. Reidy, 71, of 556 Liberty St. died in an Elmira Hospital at 6:30 p. m. July 5, 1942. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret I. Reidy, and several nephews and nieces. Mr. Reidy was a former resident of Williamsport where he engaged in the clothing business. He had resided in Elmira for eight years. Funeral Wednesday at St. Mary's Church. SS. Peter and Paul's Cemetery.

James Clancy, 76, for 25 years employed in the Buffalo Department of Public Works, died early Sunday, July 5, 1942, at his home, 115 Fargo Ave., Buffalo, after a brief illness. Mr. Clancy was born in Elmira and spent his early years here going to Buffalo about 30 years ago. As a young man he was active in political and labor organizations and at one time he was a vicepresident of the American Federation of Labor. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Alice Coleman Clancy; two sons, Frank J., Business Manager of the Buffalo Courier Express, and John R.; two daughters, Mrs. George T. Brose and Mrs. Theodore C. Spang; a sister, Miss Mary Clancy of Elmira. Funeral Wednesday at Holy Angels Church, Buffalo. Burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Three Big Days Stand Out In Army Officer's Life

CORNING—Three important days were the lot of Donald F. McGovern, son of Mrs. Daisy McGovern of Buffalo and the late Frank L. McGovern, former local business man, during the past week. On Wednesday, July 1, Mr. McGovern attained his 25th birthday; Thursday, July 2, marked his first wedding anniversary and on Friday, July 3, he was graduated as a second lieutenant from the Officers' Training School at Fort Benning, Ga.

Lt. and Mrs. McGovern, the former Miss Agnes Widrig of Newark, O., are spending several days in Corning before the lieutenant has to leave for Oregon where he has been transferred.

A graduate of St. Patrick's parish school, Corning Free Academy and the Bentley School of Finance, Boston, Lt. McGovern enlisted in the Army in January, 1941. Prior to his enlistment he was a member of the sales force of the Corning Glass Works. Until 3 months ago when he entered Officers' Training School Lt. McGovern was a sergeant at Fort Bragg, N. C.

$50 Sent To Red Cross By Corning Catholic Daughters

CORNING.—The American Red Cross, Corning Chapter, was in receipt last week of a check for $50 from Court St. Joseph 138, Catholic Daughters of America, this amount representing the proceeds from the benefit party held recently at St. Patrick's Hall.

Mrs. Gerry Beckstrand and Mrs. Lee McKinney were chairmen of the party.

POURING FROM CANS

The secret of pouring liquid from a can is to make two holes in the can instead of one, about an inch apart. The one hole is for the liquid to pour from, the other hole to let the air into the can.
