

2 Maryknoll Priests Reported On List For U. S.-Japan Exchange

WASHINGTON—Two Maryknoll missionary priests are included in a preliminary list of persons expected to proceed shortly from the Far East to Lourenco Marques.

Portuguese East Africa, in connection with the exchange of official and non-official persons between the United States and Japan and certain Japanese-controlled territories in the Orient, it has been reported here. The priests mentioned are Fathers Joseph Early and Stanislaus Ziemba. The exchange will be effected at Lourenco Marques and from that port the persons exchanged will travel to New York on one of the voyages of the S.S. "Gripsholm."

"There's only one way to get rid of your surplus fat. Exercise, and plenty of it." "Nonsense. How do you account for my wife's double chin?"
