

St. John the Evangelist's MASS TIME CHANGED

Members of St. John's Parish are reminded of the fact that the time of the last Mass on Sunday has been changed. There will be a 12 o'clock Mass from now on, instead of the 12:15 o'clock Mass. The time of the other Masses will remain unchanged.

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

SUMMER FETE OPENS

By Helen Macchia
Final arrangements have been made for the Summer Festival which is being held on Holy Family grounds today and tomorrow, July 23, 24. The program for the evening begins with supper fish fry or steak at 6 P. M. Following this, the attention of the Parishioners may be taken up by the various booths.

For the supper, Mrs. Edward Long, Chairman of the Girl Scout Leaders and Committee of the Parish, announces that the following members of her committee will serve as hostesses: Mrs. Anna Springer, Mrs. Maryann Mandara, Mrs. Hazel Seibert, Mrs. Helen Widman, Mrs. Agnes Knoch, Mrs. Isabel Hubel, Mrs. Eugene Klein, Mrs. Miss Ann Mangano, Miss Marjorie Springer, Miss Helen Schwalb, Miss Clementine Haubner, Miss Martha Schuey and Miss Agnes Erb.

The preparations for the fish fry are being made by Peter Smith and "Herb" Rverstad, both well known for their preparation of savory dishes.

The committee working under the direction of Norbert Vay in the Bank Booth are Frank Beterschmitt, Joseph Vay, Clayton Cody, Anthony Hettel, Edward Dennstedt, Joseph Rischer, Robert Blum and Elmer Walters.

A fine turnout is expected in order that this Festival may be the biggest and best ever held at Holy Family.

SOLENN CLOSING

The solemn closing of the Novena in honor of St. Anne will take place on Sunday evening at 7:30. The services have been well attended. The series of sermons on "Eternal Values" is being given by the Pastor, Father Heisel. The talks are very instructional and those making the novena feel that they are making a worthwhile spiritual retreat.

IN MEMORIAM

Last week, on Tuesday, July 14, one of the oldest members of the Parish passed on his eternal reward, Charles B. Claus, Sr., known affectionately as "Charlie" to three generations, was one of the most loyal parishioners that Holy Family has ever had. In 1890, the first Pastor of this Parish, Father Laurenzi, employed him as engineer and janitor. He was thus employed for forty-one years. Although his duties kept him occupied, often from morning until night, nevertheless he performed them with a cheerfulness which endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. For a period of fifty years he was a devoted member of the Parish Choir, acting as its director for half this time. His relations to Father Laurenzi, especially during the last years of this saintly priest's life, was that of a brother rather than that of an employee. His devotion and pride in serving Holy Family should merit him a constant remembrance in the prayers of every parishioner.

TEN COMMANDMENTS

The following is a copy of the Ten Commandments a Guide for Parents in educating their children during the summer vacation which appeared in the Weekly Parish Bulletin of Holy Family I—Daily Prayers—Children are forgetful, hence they need reminders to offer their prayers, morning, evening and mealtimes.

II—Frequent Reception of the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion—Due to carelessness of parents very many children do not receive Christ from June until September. Confession at least monthly and personal union with Our Lord in Holy Communion at Sunday Mass.

III—Weekly Mass—in order to participate frequently in the Renewal of Calvary.

IV—Recollection of Presence of God—Teach the lessons of God's Providence.

V—Companionship—Teach children to choose wisely their associates. Evil companions have spoiled moral ruin for many a boy and girl during vacation.

VI—Amusements—Are intended by God as a reward for past work and as a help to assist in future tasks, never as a goal of life. Guide their movies by consulting the Legion of Decency.

VII—Reading—Censor their reading especially the Comics so-called. Teach them to read and remain interested in good reading.

VIII—Modesty in Dress—Don't be influenced by the pagan immodesty in dress that is shamelessly parading in public today.

IX—Keeping Busy—Idleness is the devil's workshop. Work along with play should be developed in every child by his parents.

X—Soldier of Christ—As soldiers of Christ, loyalty to Christ their King and to His Kingdom in everything will be inculcated at every opportunity by loyal parents.

There is always a serene and robust pleasure in the thorough-going fulfillment of duty.

SOLE SURVIVOR

New York—Eugene Howard E. Fahey, Jr., 21, sole survivor of the collision of two semi-rigid dirigibles of the Navy off the New Jersey coast, is a University of Notre Dame alumnus, his mother said today.
