

Ban Supports Evil Literature Fight

SAN ANTONIO — New impetus was given the Archdiocesan Campaign for Decent Literature when Police and Fire Commissioner P. L. Astorino ordered 1,500 copies of a magazine withheld from publication after it had been presented to him for inspection by the distributor. The action of Commissioner Astorino was in keeping with his promise to cooperate with local leaders of the National Organization for Decent Literature. It was upon his motion that the City Council adopted an ordinance prohibiting the sale of indecent literature and pictures.

HONOR LEAGUE PROMOTERS

CORNING — Miss Mae Hart and Mrs. William McCranels were the guests of honor at a picnic dinner held at Denison Park Thursday, July 16 by the promoters of the League of the Sacred Heart. Miss Hart, who has been secretary of the League for a number of years, recently resigned her teaching position at School 2. Mrs. McCranels has been forced to discontinue her duties because of ill health.

The Rev. E. A. Rawlinson, pastor, complimented both women for the excellent work they have done. The Rev. Bernard Newcomb of Burn, former assistant pastor of St. Patrick's, also gave a talk.

Co-chairmen for the event were Mrs. J. J. Cunningham and Margaret Sheedy. They were assisted by Mesdames John Keown, Hyron J. Sutherland, Catherine Fitzgerald and Will Cassidy.
