SQUIRES CAMP PROGRAM

AUBURN — Columbian Squires, Circle No. 112, report a full program of activities at Camp Columbus on the east shore of Owasco Lake. Softball is enjoying its usual popularity at the present time with each team anxious to be the champions. The boys' All Star Team defeated the Councilors recently and although the Councilors were at a disadvantage, they did not complain but are swatting their chance to even the score.

There are three sets of brothers at Camp Columbus who have come quite a distance to enjoy the benefits of camp life. George and Bill Hoffmaster, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hoffmaster, who have been at Camp Columbus in previous years are here from their home in Philadelphia. Their mother was the former Irene Schreck of Auburn. Bill and Joe Bergin came all the way from Long Island and David and James Carr are from Watertown.

A few nights ago Head Counselor Bill Shannon was chosen as "Judge Whitehead" at a mock trial to determine whether Counselor Ed Zimmer or his cousin, Tom Florack was on the right side of the law. Tom was charged with knowing too much about Ed's whistle and its disappearance. Bill Hart was district attorney, Bob Waghorn, defense counsel and Chuck Bennett was clerk. Witnesses Clare Amann and Pete Leary were called upon and gave their version and twelve campers served as juryman. Tom was found guilty with a recommendation for mercy. However, the jury decided Tom should be punished and recommended a ducking in the lake which the campers saw that he received despite the fact that the whistle was found on the dock.

The Columbian Squires Team in the Soft Ball League will play the Dairylea team at Capitol Field on Friday evening, July 24th, at 8:00 o'clock and the Squires will hold a meeting in Recreation Hall on Friday at 8:30 at which time the Knights of Columbus will award them the trophy which they won for outstanding achievements in the United States.
