

Men Honor Assistant Pastors At St. Anne's

Bidding farewell to the Rev. Gregory Dugan who has been transferred to the Chaplaincy at Auburn Prison...

A purse was presented to Father Dugan in behalf of the parish by the Rev. George J. Schmitt, pastor of St. Anne's Church...

Responding, Father Dugan thanked the men for their cooperation and loyalty and voiced his gratitude for the honor shown him.

Father Schmitt presented Father Heisel, native of Rochester, who has been assistant pastor at St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira.

Lunch and refreshments were served by the men of the Holy Name Society.

Military Rite To Mark Dedication Of Blessed Sacrament Service Scroll

A large scroll containing the names of all the young men in the parish who have joined the armed forces of the United States will be dedicated at Blessed Sacrament Church on Oxford Street, Friday evening, July 21, at 8:30.

Father Censers, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church will dedicate the scroll which will be placed in the sanctuary of the Church as a constant reminder to the parishioners to offer prayers for the men in the service of their country.

Rev. Charles J. Braton, pastor of St. Margaret Mary's Church and Captain Chaplain of the 1st Regiment, New York Guard, will preach on the occasion.

A detachment from Company C-712 Military Police will act as escort and bear the colors. The public is cordially invited to attend this impressive military religious service.

TRAIN 30 IRISH STUDENTS FOR MISSIONS IN BRITAIN

LONDON—Thirty Irish students were yesterday in Dublin for the English and Scottish missions at completion held by Rev. Irish Bishop on last Sunday.

Prayers are needed in this country because of the demand for chaplains to the forces and because of the appointment of priests to care for children scattered in relatively safe spots in the country.

Bloomfield Parishes Annual Social, Homecoming Listed Sunday, Aug. 9

Parishioners of St. Bridget's and St. Joseph's Churches have made arrangements to entertain former parishioners and friends at their annual social and homecoming this year on Sunday afternoon and evening, Aug. 9, on the church grounds in East Bloomfield.

The rationing of many goods affecting our economic life necessitates a change in contrast with former plans for this event over past years, the committee states.

In view of this situation the committee has decided to serve tasty lunches which they feel will appeal to all. The other features which have tended to the enjoyment of this affair will be retained.

The General Committee consists of Mrs. Robert Howland, Mrs. Floyd Rayburn, Mrs. Henry Courneen, Mrs. Charles Deiles, assisted by other ladies of both parishes.
