Here to speak to the 200 Religions from the several Communities in the diocese enrolled for the Institute, was the Very Rev. Mgfr. Edward A. Preizing, executive secretary of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. The Rev. John S. Randall, diocesan director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, presented the speaker.

Designed to give all possible help to the teacher in making children better informed about the missions thus later growing into adult-life as persons conscious of their mission obligations, the program covered eight phases of the mission work.

The first day was devoted to discussion of "The World Mission Problem," and how it may be grasped by teachers and explained to their students in terms of current history. "The Teacher as a Source of Mission Zeal" was taken up in the afternoon to bring out how the teacher may interpret the apostolate to students in terms of Catholic life.

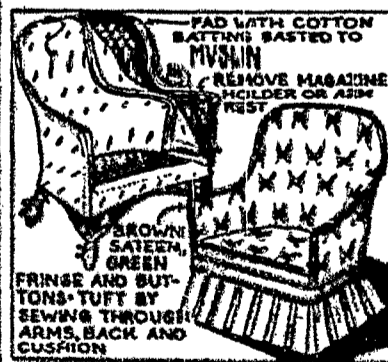

Place of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade in education and in the Church's missionary program was treated on the second day with the significance of current events in China, India and Japan with relation to the Catholic Church discussed in the afternoon.

Teachers attending the Institute heard how mission clubs are organized and conducted within the classrooms and were told of methods of raising contributions to ease the mission burden. "The Homeland Apostolate" touching on the Negro religious problem, rural religious problems, and problems of special groups comprised the third-day sessions.

Completing the program on the final day was a discussion in the morning on "The Crusade Mission Program," and how to use it in connection with the students' full curriculum. The afternoon session was on "The Teacher as a Leader in Apologetical Movements" and brought out the office of the teacher as a guide in the conversion and in the use of modern methods to spread the Catholic Faith in the United States.

ON THE HOME FRONT

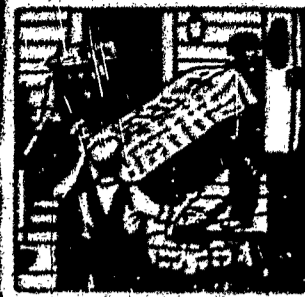

Rescue of An Old Wicker Chair
Don't throw away that frayed wicker chair, for with a little expense in time and money it may be made to serve for the duration. The sagging arm rest, magazine holder and frayed-out wicker around the legs should be removed.

Cotton batting is then basted to muslin and sewn to the chair. The sateen cover for chair and cushion is made next. The tufting is done by sewing through cover, padding and openings in the wicker work with carpet thread and a long darning needle; adding a button at each stitch.

Note: This chair remodeling idea is from Book 7, of the series of booklets which Mrs. Spears has prepared for readers. Book 7 also gives directions for a dining room cupboard; spoons, boxes and orange crates made into useful furniture. A washstand, an old buffet, and some chairs are remodeled. Thirty-two pages of illustrated directions for 10c. postpaid. Address: Mrs. Ruth Wyrth Spears, Drawer 133, Bedford Hills, N. Y.—Copyright
