

Immaculate Conception

GARDEN FETE OPENS

The spacious lawns surrounding the Immaculate church grounds will be the scene of the annual Garden Fete on Friday and Saturday evenings. On Friday evening a hot supper will be served with the ladies of the Neatry Guild under the leadership of Mrs. Rosie Conant, serving as hostesses.

Gaily decorated booths will furnish amusement as well as refreshment during the evening. The attractive cake booth will be under the direction of Mrs. Maude Summers and Mrs. Rose Kelly. A new feature this year will be the addition of the Victory Booth which will sell war stamps and bonds each evening. Two $25.00 war bonds will be awarded as part of this feature. Every society of the church is participating in this effort and everyone is urged to cooperate to make this annual venture a success.

SCOUTS AT CAMP

Scouts of Troop No. 13 are now enjoying two weeks of their summer encampment on the Algonquin site at Camp Cutler. Paul Scottabo and Bud Steeb are in charge for the first week and Elmer Deriuth and Roy Curtis will supervise the camp the second week. John Hui- bert and Elmer Koster are there in the evenings to participate in the camp fire activity hold.

On the Spot Hour Broadcast at eleven o'clock over Station WFLM last Sunday morning, special recognition was made of Troop 13 of the Immaculate Conception Church for the high degree of efficiency with which the troop camp is being managed by the scouts at Camp Warren Cutler.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts of Troops 142, 144, 145 are preparing for their two week encampment at Camp Immaculate in the Bristol Hills. The leaders of these troops together with the leaders of the Holy Family Troop made final arrangements at a meeting held on Wednesday. As in past years, the two parishes will again join in their summer activities.

Launch 'V-Mail' Service

To conserve transportation space and to expedite the handling of messages to and from the personnel of our armed forces stationed outside the continental United States, a new service known as V-Mail Service has been established in cooperation with the United States War and Navy Departments.

The new V-Mail Service is announced today in a letter to the CATHOLIC COURIER by Postmaster Donald A. Dailey of Rochester.

Available at post offices (or from private distributors at a later date) will be special letter-sheet (V-Mail) envelopes on which messages may be written and after addressing, the letter-sheet folded and sealed in the prescribed manner, postage placed thereon if necessary, and the message deposited in any post office street letter box or other authorized mail depository. The letters will be dispatched by domestic mail, according to the postage paid, to post offices at ports of embarkation.

Postage on V-Mail letters sent by others than the members of the armed forces is three (3) cents each by ordinary mail or six (6) cents by air mail and must be prepaid by placing the postage thereon.

No. Enclosures

Correspondence only is provided for by use of the special, uniform, standard, and distinctive V-Mail letter-sheet. This is a combination letter and envelope, being a shingle sheet so constructed and gummed as to fold into a uniform and distinctively marked envelope. On the correspondence side, the largest possible space is allowed for the message and small spaces for name and address of sender and addressee and censor's clearance.

The message and address may be typewritten or written with dark ink or dark pencil. NOTHING may be enclosed with the message. The opposite or envelope side of the sheet has full instructions for use and provides for writing of names and addresses of sender and receiver of letter. The address must include the rank or rating of the addressee, the unit to which he is attached, and the APO or Naval address through which he receives mail.

V-Mail letters may be forwarded in their original form or micro-filmed and a photo reproduction transmitted to the addressee when delivery can be expedited by so doing. The War and Navy Departments will decide which will be photographed and which will be forwarded in their original form.

Micro-Filming Planned
V-Mail service is not intended for use between points within the continental United States, but for handling of messages to and from the personnel of our armed forces stationed outside the continental United States.

Members of the armed forces stationed abroad will be furnished, without charge, V-Mail letter-sheets will be given photographic processing when delivery can be expedited thereby. On arrival in the United States, the micro-filmed messages will be reproduced, enclosed in specially designed envelopes and dispatched to destination.

Arrangements have been made with representatives of stationery manufacturing and distributing firms, whereby, under permits issued by the Post Office Department, firms or individuals may print for sale or free distribution V-Mail letter-sheets. A permit must be secured for this purpose because of the uniformity required by the service.

It will be some weeks, Postmaster Dailey announces, before the sheets will be available at stationery and other private sources. In order to make this service available to parents, relatives and friends of members of our armed forces as promptly as possible, an initial supply has been printed throughout the United States.

Not more than three letter-sheets will be given to one patron on one day. Stocks will be maintained on hand at post offices for the initial needs of the service only.

Postmaster Dailey states that a limited supply is now available at the Rochester Main Post Office and Classified Stations.

MRS. FRANCES BUND RITES CONDUCTED AT MT. MORRIS

MT. MORRIS. — Mrs. Frances Meyers Bund died unexpectedly Friday morning (July 24, 1942) following an operation about two weeks ago. She is survived by her husband, seven sisters and one brother.

Funeral services were held at 8:30 o'clock in the Meyers Home, 10 Elm Street, and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church, Mt. Morris. The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. William Rafferty, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, assisted by Rev. Benedict Ehmman and Rev. Eugene Golding. Rev. J. Edmond O'Brien was present in the sanctuary.

Nazis Suppress Dutch Catholic Paper

NEW YORK.—De Nieuwe Eeuw (The New Age), important Netherlands Catholic weekly, has been suppressed by the Nazi occupation authorities, according to the Netherlands Information Bureau here.

Organized some 15 years ago, De Nieuwe Eeuw was the magazine of the younger generation. All of its editors were Catholic laymen. The leading magazine of the Catholic intellectuals, it had taken a firm stand against the Nazi ideology and was an outstanding organ of Catholic thought in social and economic affairs and the arts.

A good character is the first essential in a man. It is, therefore, highly important to endeavor not only to be learned, but, virtuous.
